of academics to contextualise the work of composers who have moved in parallel with these developments while remaining resolutely outside its immediate environment including such diverse figures as Karel Goeyvaerts Robert Ashley Arvo Pärt and Brian Eno Theory has reflected practice in many respects with the multimedia works of Reich and Glass encouraging interdisciplinary approaches associations and interconnections Minimalism's role in culture and society has also become the subject of recent interest and debate complementing existing scholarship which addressed the subject from the perspective of historiography analysis aesthetics and philosophy The Ashgate Research Companion to Minimalist and Postminimalist Music provides an authoritative overview of established research in this area while also offering new and innovative approaches to the subject

Don't Look Now Mark Sanderson, 2019-07-25 Don't Look Now released in 1973 confirmed director Nicolas Roeg as one of the most stylish and innovative British directors of the postwar period Adapted from a short story by Daphne du Maurier it is both a complex study of how people come to terms with grief and a chilling tale of murder set among the canals and churches of Venice Featuring telling performances by Julie Christie and Donald Sutherland as the couple whose daughter has tragically died Don't Look Now depicts the way in which the macabre and the everyday are intertwined In his lucid subtle account Mark Sanderson describes the collaboration between director and actors that sustained the film's emotional richness He returns to du Maurier's original text and to the traditions of Gothic writing that underpin Don't Look Now's combination of horror melodrama and black comedy Sanderson examines the film's intricate visual style uncovering the way in which particular motifs are used to amplify its depiction of two terrible deaths He finds compensation for the film's grimly fatalistic view of life in its celebration of sexual relationships and the power of recollection The book includes an exclusive and in depth interview with Roeg as well as rare and unpublished comments from Christie In his foreword to this special edition published to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the BFI Film Classics series Jason Wood places Don't Look Now in the context of Roeg's

Complicating Articulation in Art Cinema Benedict Morrison, 2021 What is film criticism for This book aims to answer this question It argues that art cinema's political effect is the result of indeterminacy and not character-centric meaning The Films of John Schlesinger Julia Prewitt Brown, 2019-08-24 The city with its manifold distractions and violence its invitation to intoxication and dream had long served to represent the experience of modernity in works of art at the time John Schlesinger made his acclaimed urban documentary Terminus in 1961 To be a reader of the city was to be a reader of modern life and Schlesinger was a discriminating at times relentless reader of the city throughout his career especially in his three greatest films Midnight Cowboy Sunday Bloody Sunday and The Day of the Locust set in New York London and Los Angeles respectively His character-driven stories evocation of the significance of the everyday and insistence on ambiguities of situation and motive all qualities he was known for point to literary influences that reach back to the nineteenth century and earlier The Films of John Schlesinger is not only the first book to fully acknowledge those influences but also the first book to explicate the power of his art to capture the modern urban experiences of becoming an adult in an atmosphere that relentlessly promotes fantasies of success and wealth of coming to terms with one's national identity in the context of international politics and of attempting to transform the past both personal and cultural into a viable present Caravaggio Leo Bersani, Ulysse Dutoit, 2021-03-25 Caravaggio 1986 Derek Jarman's portrait of the Italian Baroque artist shows the painter at work with models drawn from Rome's homeless and prostitutes and his relationship with two very different lovers Ranuccio played by Sean Bean and Lena played by Tilda Swinton It is probably the closest Derek Jarman came to a mainstream film And yet the film is a uniquely complex and lucid treatment of Jarman's major concerns violence history homosexuality and the relation between film and painting In particular according to Leo Bersani and Ulysse Dutoit Caravaggio is unlike Jarman's other work in avoiding a sentimentalising of gay relationships and in making no neat distinction between the exercise and the suffering of violence Film making involves a coercive power which for Bersani and Dutoit Jarman may without admitting it to himself have found deeply seductive But in Caravaggio this power is renounced and the result is Jarman's most profound unsettling and astonishing reflection on sexuality and identity Understanding Representation Wendy Helsby, 2019-07-25 This is the third book in the Understanding the Moving Image series Like other books in the series it aims to provide a strong critical and theoretical base for the study of the media It has been co-authored by experienced Media and Film Studies tutors offering fresh and innovative ways of talking about the key concept of representation How is the world mediated to deliver messages and create beliefs about groups such as the mentally ill institutions like the family and schools minority and marginalised people and issues of nation seen through football and films

It also looks outside our ethnocentric mediated world to see how we are represented to others The choice of texts reflects both an attempt to push the boundaries of the study of representation with new research but also to make it accessible and stimulating for students coming into this area for the first time Case studies reflect contemporary concerns in the media often from different perspectives Cinema and Intermediality (Second, Enlarged Edition) Ágnes Pethő, 2020-08-24 One of the most comprehensive books to focus on the relationship between cinema and the other arts this volume explores types and stylistic devices of intermediality through a wide range of case studies It addresses major theoretical issues and highlights the relevance of intermedial relations in film history mapping the theoretical field by outlining its main concepts and the research avenues pursued in the study of cinematic intermediality including the most recent approaches and methodologies It also presents some major templates of intermediality through various examples from world cinema including closer looks at films by auteurs like Alfred Hitchcock Michelangelo Antonioni Jean Luc Godard and Agn s Varda Supplemented by three new chapters dealing with phenomena which came into view since its first publication the revised and enlarged edition of this ground breaking volume will serve as a useful handbook to clarify key ideas and to offer insightful analyses

Hollywood Hype and Audiences Thomas Austin, 2002-05-03 This book traces the circulation in Britain of three Hollywood films Basic Instinct Bram Stoker s Dracula and Natural Born Killers from marketing and critical reception to consumption in cinemas and on video It draws on economic discursive contexts and original audience research to trace how meanings pleasures and uses are derived from popular film A significant intervention into methodological debates in film studies and a timely investigation of film culture it focuses on key questions about genre taste sexual pleasure and screen violence Atlas of Emotion Giuliana Bruno, 2020-05-05 Atlas of Emotion is a highly original endeavour to map a cultural history of spatio visual arts In an evocative montage of words and pictures emphasises that sight and site but also motion and emotion are irrevocably connected In so doing Giuliana Bruno touches on the art of Gerhard Richter and Annette Message the film making of Peter Greenaway and Michelangelo Antonioni the origins of the movie palace and its precursors and her own journeys to her native Naples Visually luscious and daring in conception Bruno opens new vistas and understandings at every turn The British Cinema Book Robert Murphy, 2019-07-25 The new edition of The British Cinema Book has been thoroughly revised and updated to provide a comprehensive introduction to the major periods genres studios film makers and debates in British cinema from the 1890s to the present The book has five sections addressing debates and controversies industry genre and representation British cinema 1895 1939 British cinema from World War II to the 1970s and contemporary British cinema Within these sections leading scholars and critics address a wide range of issues and topics including British cinema as a national cinema its complex relationship with Hollywood film censorship key British genres such as horror comedy and costume film the work of directors including Alfred Hitchcock Anthony Asquith Alexander Mackendrick Michael Powell Lindsay Anderson Ken Russell and Mike Leigh studios such as Gainsborough Ealing Rank and
