Taken By Design Photographs From The Institute Of Design 1937 1971:

Taken by Design David Travis, Elizabeth Siegel, Keith F. Davis, Art Institute of Chicago, 2002-01 One of Chicago's great cultural achievements the Institute of Design was among the most important schools of photography in twentieth century America It began as an outpost of experimental Bauhaus education and was home to an astonishing group of influential teachers and students including László Moholy-Nagy Harry Callahan and Aaron Siskind To date however the ID's enormous contributions to the art and practice of photography have gone largely unexplored Taken by Design is the first publication to examine thoroughly this remarkable institution and its lasting impact With nearly 300 illustrations including many never before published photographs Taken by Design examines the changing nature of photography over this critical period in America's midcentury It starts by documenting the experimental nature of Moholy's Bauhaus approach and photography's new and enhanced role in training the complete designer Next it traces the formal and abstract camera experiments under Harry Callahan and Aaron Siskind which aimed at achieving a new kind of photographic subjectivity Finally it highlights the ID's focus on conscious references to the processes of the photographic medium itself In addition to photographs by Moholy Callahan and Siskind the book showcases works by Barbara Crane Yasuhiro Ishimoto Joseph Jachna Kenneth Josephson Gyorgy Kepes Nathan Lerner Ray K Metzker Richard Nickel Arthur Siegel Art Sinsabaugh and many others Major essays from experts in the field biographies a chronology and reprints of critical essays are also included making Taken by Design an essential work for anyone interested in the history of American photography Contributors include Keith Davis Lloyd Engelbrecht John Grimes Nathan Lyons Hattula Moholy-Nagy Elizabeth Siegel David Travis Larry Viskochil James N Wood

Taken by Design Philadelphia Museum of Art, 2002 Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included

The Third Coast Thomas L. Dyja, 2014-03-25 Winner of the Chicago Tribune's 2013 Heartland Prize A critically acclaimed history of Chicago at mid century featuring many of the incredible personalities that shaped American culture Before air travel overtook trains nearly every coast to coast journey included a stop in Chicago and this flow of people and commodities made it the crucible for American culture and innovation In luminous prose Chicago native Thomas Dyja re-creates the story of the city in its postwar prime and explains its profound impact on modern America from Chess Records to Playboy

McDonald's to the University of Chicago Populated with an incredible cast of characters including Mahalia Jackson Muddy Waters Howlin' Wolf Chuck Berry Sun Ra Simone de Beauvoir Nelson Algren Gwendolyn Brooks Studs Turkel and Mayor Richard J. Daley The Third Coast recalls the prominence of the Windy City in all its grandeur Chicago Makes Modern Mary Jane Jacob, Jacquelynn Baas, 2012-12-15 Chicago is a city dedicated to the modern from the skyscrapers that punctuate its skyline to the spirited style that inflects many of its dwellings and institutions from the New Bauhaus to Hull House Despite this the city has long been overlooked as a locus for modernism in the arts its rich tradition of architecture design and education disregarded Still the modern in Chicago continues to thrive as new generations of artists incorporate its legacy into fresh visions for the future Chicago Makes Modern boldly remaps twentieth century modernism from our new century perspective by asking an imperative question How did the modern mind deeply reflective yet simultaneously directed help to dramatically alter our perspectives on the world and make it new Returning the city to its rightful position at the heart of a multidimensional movement that changed the face of the twentieth century Chicago Makes Modern applies the missions of a brilliant group of innovators to our own time From the radical social and artistic perspectives implemented by Jane Addams John Dewey and Buckminster Fuller to the avant garde designs of László Moholy-Nagy and Mies van der Rohe the prodigious offerings of Chicago's modern minds left an indelible legacy for future generations Staging the city as a laboratory for some of our most heralded cultural experiments Chicago Makes Modern reimagines the modern as a space of self realization and social progress where individual visions triggered profound change Featuring contributions from an acclaimed roster of contemporary artists critics and scholars this book demonstrates how and why the Windy City continues to drive the modern world Spirit Into Matter Julian Cox, Edmund Teske, 2004 Edmund Teske 1911-1996 was one of the alchemists of twentieth century American photography Over a sixty year period he created a diverse body of work that explored the expressive and emotional potentials of the medium His drive to experiment with sophisticated techniques such as solarization and composite printing liberated a younger generation of American photographers at the same time his subject matter sometimes abstract often homoerotic and always lyrical and poetic opened up new areas for photographers to explore Spirit Into Matter is published to coincide with the first major retrospective of Teske's work to be held at the Getty Museum from June 15 to September 19 2004 Julian Cox provides an introduction and extensive biocritical essay on Teske that traces his long and varied career from Chicago in the 1930s to Los Angeles where the photographer took up residence in 1943 Cox investigates Teske's early associations with such influential figures as Frank Lloyd Wright and Paul Strand and his later associations with iconic figures including filmmaker Kenneth Anger and musicians Ramblin' Jack Elliott and the Doors The first major study of this fascinating and influential artist Spirit Into Matter will be a dynamic source of information for students of photography collectors and all those with an interest in the life and culture of Southern California where Teske worked for more than fifty years Art in Chicago Maggie Taft, Robert Cozzolino, 2018-10-10 For decades now the story of art in America has been dominated by New York It gets the majority of attention the stories of its schools and movements and masterpieces the stuff of pop culture legend Chicago on the other hand well people here just get on with the work of making art Now that art is getting its due Art in Chicago is a magisterial account of the long history of Chicago art from the rupture of the Great Fire in 1871 to the present Manierre Dawson L szl Moholy Nagy and Ivan Albright to Chris Ware Anne Wilson and Theaster Gates The first single volume history of art and artists in Chicago the book in recognition of the complexity of the story it tells doesn't follow a single continuous trajectory Rather it presents an overlapping sequence of interrelated narratives that together tell a full and nuanced yet wholly accessible history of visual art in the city From the temptingly blank canvas left by the Fire we loop back to the 1830s and on up through the 1860s tracing the beginnings of the city's institutional and professional art world and community From there we travel in chronological order through the decades to the present Familiar developments such as the founding of the Art Institute the Armory Show and the arrival of the Bauhaus are given a fresh look while less well known aspects of the story like the contributions of African American artists dating back to the 1860s or the long history of activist art finally get suitable recognition The six chapters each written by an expert in the period brilliantly mix narrative and image weaving in oral histories from artists and critics reflecting on their work in the city and setting new movements and key works in historical context The final chapter comprised of interviews and conversations with contemporary artists brings the story up to the present offering a look at the vibrant art being created in the city now and addressing ongoing debates about what it means to identify as or resist identifying as a Chicago artist today The result is an unprecedentedly inclusive and rich tapestry one that reveals Chicago art in all its variety and vigor and one that will surprise and enlighten even the most dedicated fan of the city's artistic heritage Part of the Terra Foundation for American Art's year-long Art Design Chicago initiative which will bring major arts events to venues throughout Chicago in 2018 Art in Chicago is a landmark publication a book that will be the standard account of Chicago art for decades to come No art fan regardless of their city will want to miss it

Transformational Imagemaking: Handmade Photography Since 1960 Robert Hirsch, 2014-01-10 This groundbreaking survey of significant work and ideas focuses on imagemakers who have pushed beyond the boundaries of photography as a window on our material world Through interviews with more than 40 key artists this book explores a diverse group of curious experimentalists who have propelled the medium's evolution by visualizing their subject matter as it originates from their mind's eye Many favor the historical techniques commonly known as alternative photographic processes but all these makers demonstrate that the real alternative is found in their mental approach and not in their use of physical methods Within this context photographer and photography historian Robert Hirsch outlines the varied approaches these artists have utilized to question conventional photographic practices to convey internal realities and to examine what constitutes photographic reality Hirsch explores the half-century evolution of these concepts and methodologies and their popularity among contemporary imagemakers who are merging digital and analog processes to part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines Texas Bauhaus Christian John Gerstheimer, El Paso Museum of Art, 2006 The Last Picture Show Douglas Fogle, 2003

Photography has become an increasingly pervasive medium of choice in contemporary art practice and is even employed at times by artists who do not necessarily consider themselves to be photographers How did this come to be The Last Picture Show will address the emergence of this phenomenon of artists using photography by tracing the development of conceptual trends in postwar photographic practice from its first glimmerings in the 60s in the work of artists such as Bernd portraiture and cultural identity the formal and social architectonics of the built environment societal and individual interventions in the landscape photography's relationship to sculpture and painting the visual mediation of meaning in popular culture and the poetic and conceptual investigation of visual non sequiturs disjunctions and humorous absurdities Bringing together a newly commissioned body of scholarship with reprints of important historical texts The Last Picture Show seeks to define the legacy that has produced a rich body of photographic practice in the art world today
