Taking Christianity to China Wayne Flynt, Gerald W. Berkley, 1997-01-30 Beginning early in the 19th century the American missionary movement made slow headway in China Alabamians became part of that small beachhead After 1900 both the money and personnel rapidly expanded peaking in the early 1920s By the 1930s many American denominations became confused and divided over the appropriateness of the missionary endeavor Secular American intellectuals began to criticize missionaries as meddling do gooders trying to impose American Evangelicalism on a proud ancient culture By examining the lives of 47 Alabama missionaries who served in China between 1850 and 1950 Flynt and Berkley reach a different conclusion Although Alabama missionaries initially fit the negative description of Americans trying to superimpose their own values and beliefs on heathen they quickly learned to respect Chinese civilization The result was a new synthesis neither entirely southern nor entirely Chinese Although previous works focus on the failure of Christianity to change China this book focuses on the degree to which their service in China changed Alabama missionaries And the change was profound In their consideration of 47 missionaries from a single state their call to missions preparation for service in China living working contacts back home cultural clashes political views internal conflicts and gender relations the authors suggest that the efforts by Baptist Methodist and Presbyterian missionaries from Alabama were not the failure judged by many historians In fact the seeds sown in the hundred years before the Communist revolution in 1950 seem to be reaping a rich harvest in the declining years of the 20th century when the number of Chinese Christians is estimated by some to be as high as one hundred million

Ireland, Grace Y. May, Casely B. Essamuah, 2021-07-08 Can something as simple as friendship have a transformative impact in a divided world Through a series of richly textured historical portraits and reflections on personal experience this book shows that boundary crossing friendships in Christian mission have shaped theologies built organizations and partnerships facilitated mission work and changed attitudes and ways of thinking This is true in settings as varied as eighteenth century French women's work twentieth century urban Boston colonial India the Jim Crow South and twentieth century rural Congo In all these settings and more friendship has mattered Boundary crossing friendships are however not easy Despite their power such friendships are complicated by race gender ability class nationality and other elements of identity as this book also demonstrates Friendships are not immune from the divisions in the world nor a simple cure all for them Still friendship stands as a powerful testimony to the gospel Therefore the book calls for more attention to friendship in the study of mission history and more living out of friendship as a practice of mission In this way this book pays honor to Dr Dana L Robert as a pre eminent mission scholar and exemplary friend and mentor to others in the fields of missiology and world Christianity

From Every Stormy Wind That Blows S. Jonathan Bass, 2024-02-21 Founded in 1841 in Marion Alabama Howard College provided a Christian liberal arts education for young men living along the old southwestern frontier The founders named the school after eighteenth century British reformer John Howard whose words and deeds inspired the type of enlightened moral agent and virtuous Christian citizen the institution hoped to produce In From Every Stormy Wind That Blows S Jonathan Bass provides a comprehensive history of Howard College which in 1965 changed its name to Samford University According to Bass the idea of Howard College emanated from its founders firm commitment to orthodox Protestantism the tenets of Scottish philosophy the British Enlightenment's emphasis on virtue and the moral reforms of the age From the Old South through the Civil War and Reconstruction to the New South Howard College adapted to new conditions while continuing to teach the necessary ingredients to transform young southern men into useful and enlightened Christian citizens Throughout its history Howard College faced challenges both within and without As with other institutions in the South slavery played a central role in its founding with most of the college's principal benefactors organizers and board of trustees earning financial gains from enslaved labor The Civil War swept away the college's large endowment and growing student enrollment and the school never regained a solid financial footing during the subsequent decades barely surviving bankruptcy and public auction In 1887 with the continued decline of southern agriculture Howard College moved to a new campus on the outskirts of Birmingham where its president Rev Benjamin Franklin Riley a well known New South economic booster fought to restore the college's financial health Despite his best efforts Howard struggled economically until local bankers offered enough assistance to allow the institution to enter the twentieth century with a measure of financial stability The challenges and changes wrought by the years transformed Howard College irrevocably While the original idea of the school endured through its classical curriculum by the 1920s the school had all but lost its connections to John Howard and its founding principles From Every Stormy Wind That Blows is a fascinating look into this storied institution s history and Samford University s origins Methodist History ,1997 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2000

HOWARD TAYLOR ,2015-10-17 I found this work by Dr and Mrs Howard Taylor on Hudson Taylor and the China Inland Mission but it was a scanned copy of one that was marked up and made for a bad scan I did find one ebook but for some reason it had some HTML errors and wouldn't load into any of my readers I ended up taking the raw text file and going through it making all the corrections I then converted it to a ebook format This project was a time consuming task Now About the Book Hudson Taylor was a true man of faith as this book will show He was the founder of the China Inland Mission and started his journey of faith at a young man Here is a clip from the Forward The founder of the China Inland Mission was a physician J Hudson Taylor a man full of the Holy Spirit and of faith of entire surrender to God and His call of great self denial heartfelt compassion rare power in prayer marvellous organising faculty energetic initiative indefatigable perseverance and of astonishing influence with men and withal of childlike humility Twenty-Six Years of Missionary Work in China Grace Stott,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1898 edition Excerpt over them this continued all the week It was a heartbreaking week The native Christians came in from all the country round many of them walking ten and twenty miles they all went into the study to see the life size portrait of Mr Stott and at the sight burst into tears You have no idea how they love and honour Mrs Stott and they are a nice lot of people too you can see they are Christians by their faces Two days after our arrival Mr and Mrs G left for their own station Bing yie about thirty three miles south of us Carpenters and bricklayers had soon to be called in to repair the damage done by white ants as part of the floors were quite eaten through and the house needed to be cleaned throughout but in three weeks we were in order again The Christians were all eager for me to visit them so beginning with the nearest places first I went to a village seven miles distant from the city to the house of a man who had been for years the only Christian in that place My delight was great to find ten converts now and nearly as many inquirers After supper twenty persons with Testaments and hymn books gathered for evening service I spoke from John iii God's love and was followed by two of the converts who gave such addresses as showed how they had grown in grace In that village there are now twenty disciples and a Bible reading has been conducted by one of the young ladies every Thursday afternoon It takes her two hours to go and the same time to return but small amount of persecution has had the joy of seeing his wife and wife's mother his four children two it is labour well spent This man who was at first and for years the only Christian and who endured no sisters in law and a
