Learning from Victims' Family Narratives Morag C. Kennedy, 2025-07-08 Offering a new perspective on intimate partner abuse and homicide this book recognises the families of victims as legitimate agents of knowledge in terms of the harm experienced by their family members and considers how this harm is extended to the families themselves Examining harm from both an offline and online point of view the book explains the multipurpose roles of offline and online harm and how these roles do not occur in isolation in terms of the victims and families abusive experiences In doing so it demonstrates the range of harm experienced in the context of intimate partner abuse and homicide and outlines the overlapping nature of offline and online harm without prioritising one form of harm over the other instead considering the harm experienced as a continuum Providing theoretical and empirical contributions that are largely absent from existing victimology and harm literature Learning from Victims Family Narratives The Impact of Offline and Online Harm in Cases of Intimate Partner Homicide will be of interest to scholars researchers students and practitioners exploring the modern conceptualisation of harm and its impact on individuals beyond the victim and perpetrator Stories,

Storytellers, and Storytelling Tom Vine,Sarah Richards,2022-12-15 This book advances social scientific interest in a field long dominated by the humanities stories and storytelling Stories are a whole lot more than entertainment oral narratives novels films and immersive video games all form part of the sociocultural discourses which we are enmeshed in and use to co construct our beliefs about the world around us Young children use them to learn about the world beyond their immediate sensory experience and even in an era of interactive electronic media the bedtime story remains a cherished part of most children s daily routine Storytelling is thus the first abstract formal learning method we encounter as human beings It is also probably transcultural perhaps even an immanent part of the human condition Narratives are at heart sequences of events and presuppose and reinforce particular cause and effect relationships Inevitably they also construct unconscious biases prejudices and discriminatory attitudes Storying a term we use in this book to encompass stories storytellers and storytelling is complex and this book seeks to make sense of it New Books on Women and Feminism ,2004 Families and
