Plant Metaphors in the Old Greek of Isaiah Benjamin M. Austin, 2019-02-01 A thorough analysis of metaphor translation techniques used in Isaiah. In this study Benjamin M. Austin analyzes all the plant metaphors in Isaiah and classifies them according to the metaphor translation techniques used by the Septuagint translator. Austin illustrates how the translator took the context of each metaphor into account and demonstrates how the natural features of the plants under discussion at times influenced their translation. He argues that the translator tried to render metaphors vividly and with clarity, sometimes adjusting them to match the experience of his audience living in Egypt. Austin also examines metaphors in terms of their vehicles, the objects of comparison, so that the translation of similar metaphors can be compared. Features: A comparison of the Masoretic Text to the Septuagint and Targum; A classification of metaphor translation strategies; An introduction to the Hellenistic and the Jewish conception of metaphors.

Possible Histories Charlotte Karem Albrecht, 2023-02-07 Many Syrians who immigrated to the US beginning in the 1870s worked as peddlers. Traveling enabled men to transgress Syrian norms related to marriage, while Syrian women's roles in peddling led to more economic autonomy. In Possible Histories, Charlotte Karem Albrecht explores this peddling economy to reveal the sexual ideologies imbricated in Arab American racial histories. Possible Histories marshals a queer affective approach to community and family history to show how Syrian immigrant peddlers and their networks of labor and care appeared in interconnected discourses of modernity, sexuality, gender, class, and race. Karem Albrecht theorizes this profession and its place in Arab American historiography as a queer ecology of laboring practices, intimacies, and knowledge production. This book ultimately proposes a new understanding of the long arc of Arab American history that puts sexuality and gender at the heart of ways of navigating US racial systems. Possible Histories brings an innovative queer analytic to Arab American history, inquiring into the intimate relationships among itinerant peddlers. Uncovering the role of sexuality in racializing Arab Americans, it challenges respectability politics and brilliantly upends reigning paradigms in Arab American history.

EVELYN ALSULTANY, author of Broken: The Failed Promise of Muslim Inclusion. A deeply personal queer history that is brisk, unsettling, and brimming with insights. Puzzling through gossip, shame, and scandal, Charlotte Karem Albrecht offers an astounding kaleidoscope of Arab Americans in the twentieth century.

NAYAN SHAH, author of Refusal to Eat: A Century of Prison Hunger Strikes. Possible Histories is a rich contribution to queer theorizing on kinship, archives, and diaspora. In this moving tribute to the challenges and traps of recovery work, Karem Albrecht traverses the maze of memory and family with care and thoughtfulness.

The Numerical Structure of the Holy Bible Charles Stockford Jr., 2016-12-22 Most Bible students are aware of the use of numbers in scripture. The number 7 is a prime example with its connotations of perfection.

and completeness The study of numbers as used in the Bible is infrequent and the Lord's people therefore miss some of that which is profitable for correction and instruction in the Word of God This volume goes a long way toward correcting the deficiency by providing a great introduction to the subject and showing that these patterns provide proof of the completeness and inspiration of the Holy Scriptures The reader will find profit as well as inspiration from this intriguing study Extreme Heroism Rev. Gregory (hon., lady Welby-), 1881 The Word of God for the People of God, 2010-01-04 This book fills a real need for pastors and students. Though there is currently a large body of material on the theological interpretation of Scripture, most of it is highly specific and extremely technical. J. Todd Billings here provides a straightforward entryway for students and pastors to understand why theological interpretation matters and how it can be done. A solid constructive theological work. The Word of God for the People of God presents a distinctive Trinitarian participatory approach toward reading Scripture as the church. Billings's accessible yet substantial argument for a theological hermeneutic is rooted in a historic vision of the practice of scriptural interpretation, even as it engages a wide range of contemporary issues and includes several exegetical examples that apply to concrete Christian ministry situations. Fruit Grower, 1907 The Ministry of the Word, Vol. 23, No. 06 Various Authors, 2019-06-01 This issue of The Ministry of the Word contains the eight messages given during the international training for elders and responsible ones held in Anaheim, California, on April 5 through 7, 2019. The general subject of this series of messages is The Development of the Kingdom of God in the Christian Life and the Church Life. The kingdom of God is a wonderful person, the Lord Jesus Christ, who as the Sower sowed the seed of the kingdom into the soil of our heart. This kingdom seed, which is Christ Himself, as both the King and the kingdom, through the word, needs to grow and develop in our inner being to become God's ruling realm. The kingdom is the realm of life for the divine life to move, rule and govern, so that life may accomplish its purpose. The kingdom that is developing is not only divine life but also Christ Himself as a wonderful person expanding within us. Before there can be the manifestation of the kingdom with the Lord's coming, there must be the reality of the kingdom inwardly and the practicality of the kingdom in the Christian life and the church life. In our Christian life we live the kingdom life by living a hidden life. Because the kingdom has been sown as a seed into us, the development and manifestation of the kingdom must come from the hidden growth of the roots within the soil. The kingdom life is a life in the depths, a life that can take root downward and bear fruit upward. Isa 37:31 The principle of the kingdom people is that they live a hidden life, not performing their righteous deeds before men. Messages 1 and 2 emphasize the Christian life, particularly the inward reality of the kingdom that is developing and the matter of learning to have a life hidden in God, so that the kingdom life may deepen in us. The kingdom is the reality of the church and the church is the practical expression and representation of the kingdom Apart from the kingdom life we cannot live the church life The genuine church is the kingdom of God in this age Today the believers live the kingdom life in the church Messages 3 through 6 focus on various aspects of the kingdom and the church Message 3 directly concerns the kingdom and the church Message 4 is on relationships in the kingdom In particular it is on the seriousness of living a forgiving life so that we will have no issues before the Son of Man that will cost us the kingdom reward In Message 5 we see the need for shutting up the gates of Hades through the exercise of the keys of denying the self taking up the cross and losing the soul life Message 6 focuses on the responsibility of the church to engage in spiritual warfare mainly through prayer because of the conflict between the kingdom of God and the kingdom of Satan The responsibility of the church is to bring the kingdom of God to the earth in glorious manifestation Message 7 is concerned with our being watchful in life and faithful in service For life we need oil the Spirit of God even His filling that we may be enabled to live the virgin life for the Lord's testimony For service for work we need the talent the spiritual gift that we may be equipped as a good slave to accomplish what the Lord intends to accomplish Message 8 concludes this series by releasing a burden on proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom throughout the entire inhabited earth and discipling the nations The gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole inhabited earth for a testimony to all the nations before the end of this age We have the authority commission and position of our resurrected Christ to disciple the nations for the spread and development of the kingdom of God The Announcements section at the end of this issue contains a list of upcoming conferences and trainings hosted by Living Stream Ministry and a website link for information related to similar events in Europe
