their development has been the spectacular imagining of the past as heritage and through regeneration Yet the ghosts that this conjures up in practice offer us a possible form of political unsettlement and alternative ways of viewing cities that is only just beginning to be explored Through this important collection by some of the leading analysts of consumption cities and space Consuming the Entrepreneurial City offers a cutting edge analysis of the ways in which cities are developing and the implications this has for their future It is essential reading for students of Urban Studies Geography Sociology Cultural Studies Heritage Studies and Anthropology Alternative Art, New York, 1965-1985 Julie Ault, Social Text Collective, Drawing Center (New York, N.Y.), 2002 A sweeping history of the New York art scene during the 1960s 1970s and 1980s reveals a powerful alternative art culture that profoundly influenced the mainstream Simultaneous Fine Arts

Keith Haring's Line Ricardo Montez,2020-08-10 In the thirty years since his death Keith Haring a central presence on the

New York downtown scene of the 1980s has remained one of the most popular figures in contemporary American art. In one of the first book length treatments of Haring's artistry, Ricardo Montez traces the drawn and painted line that was at the center of Haring's artistic practice and with which the artist marked canvases, subway walls, and even human flesh. Keith Haring's Line unites performance studies, critical race studies, and queer theory in an exploration of cross-racial desire in Haring's life and art. Examining Haring's engagements with artists such as dancer and choreographer Bill T. Jones, graffiti artist LA II, and iconic superstar Grace Jones, Montez confronts Haring's messy relationships to race-making and racial imaginaries, highlighting scenes of complicity in order to trouble both the positive connotations of inter-racial artistic collaboration and the limited framework of appropriation.

The Uses of Art in Public Space Julia Lossau, Quentin Stevens, 2014-12-05. This book links two fields of interest which are too seldom considered together: the production and critique of art in public space and social behaviour in the public realm. Whilst most writing about public art has focused on the aesthetic, cultural, and political intentions and processes that shape its production, this edited collection examines a variety of public artworks from the perspective of their actual everyday use. Contributors are interested in the rich diversity of people's engagements with public artworks across various spatial and temporal scales, encounters which do not limit themselves to the representational aspects of the art and which are not necessarily as the artist, curator, or sponsor intended. Case studies consider a broad range of public art, including commissioned and unofficial artworks, memorials, street art, street furniture, performance art, sound art, and media installations.
