Disability, Poverty and Education Nidhi Singal, 2014-10-29 This book is a succinct and distinctive presentation of current research addressing educational issues in relation to children and young people with disabilities in Southern contexts Even though people with disabilities are disproportionately over represented in the majority world there is a lack of texts which bring together empirical insights highlighting the unique socio economic and cultural realities of these contexts and the ways in which these have shaped developments in education This book provides a comprehensive and critical overview of a range of issues such as the dilemmas in conceptual translations analysis of international aid and national policies evaluation of various educational interventions and issues interrogating the purpose of education Bringing together various research projects conducted in eight different countries this book successfully captures a unique spread of cross cultural issues It was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Inclusive Education

Educating Marginalized Communities in East and Southeast Asia Khun Eng Kuah, Jason Eng Thye Tan, 2016-11-25 Despite the enshrinement by the United Nations in 1948 of education as a universal human right and despite the ideals espoused in the Education for All declaration in Dakar in 1990 it is patently clear that these ideals remain far from realized for a substantial portion of humankind Especially at risk are vulnerable segments of society such as women migrants refugees rural populations ethnic minorities and the financially disadvantaged This book centres on efforts to provide education to these marginalized populations in the East and Southeast Asian region Of particular interest are questions of financing and control As various governments have struggled to manage the escalating costs of building schools training teachers and educating students the topic of public private partnerships in educational provision has assumed growing importance The seven chapters presented here highlight a variety of partnerships among state civil society and non government organisations NGOs
