Fifty Modern and Contemporary Dramatists Maggie Gale, John Deeney, 2014-11-27 Fifty Modern and Contemporary Dramatists is a critical introduction to the work of some of the most important and influential playwrights from the 1950s to the present day. The figures chosen are among the most widely studied by students of drama, theatre and literature and include such celebrated writers as Samuel Beckett, Caryl Churchill, Anna Deavere Smith, Jean Genet, Sarah Kane, Heiner Müller, Arthur Miller, Harold Pinter, Sam Shepard. Each short essay is written by one of an international team of academic experts and offers a detailed analysis of the playwright's key works and career. The introduction provides an historical and theatrical context to the volume which provides an invaluable overview of modern and contemporary drama. Inheritance and

Originality : Wittgenstein, Heidegger, Kierkegaard Stephen Mulhall, 2001-06-14 What might it mean to think of philosophy as being in the condition of modernism in which its relation to its own past and hence its sense of its own future has become an undismissable problem? If philosophy's hitherto defining conventions can neither be taken for granted nor rejected, they must be put in question which means re-evaluating the relation between the form and content of philosophical writing, rethinking the demands that such writing must place on its readers and reconceiving the nature of philosophy itself. Inheritance and Originality argues that the writings of Wittgenstein, Heidegger and Kierkegaard are best understood as responsive each in their own way to such questions and as driven in consequence to strikingly similar reconceptions of language, reason and understanding, doubt and scepticism, morality and the structure of selfhood. Through detailed re-readings of these authors' most influential texts, as attentive to their specificity as to their family resemblances, Stephen Mulhall reorients our sense of the philosophical work each text aims to accomplish to engender a critical dialogue between them from which the elements of a new conception of philosophy might emerge and to uncover that conception's indebtedness to certain fundamental theological preoccupations. New York Theatre Critics' Reviews, 1991 Theatre critics reviews brings you the complete reviews from these New York publications and stations whenever covered by the critic: New York daily news, Wall Street journal, Time, New York post, Women's wear daily, WABC TV, CBS TV, New York times, Christian Science monitor, Newsweek. Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States. Central Intelligence Agency, 1962

Reports of Proceedings ..., 1916 Journeys in the Night Theodore Mann, 2007-09 Through the decades Theodore Mann has kept Circle in the Square alive by leaping from the precipice of one hit to another, taking on every task from stoking a dilapidated furnace to directing Tony Award winning productions. In the process, Mann has helped restore the reputation of one of our greatest playwrights, Eugene O'Neill, first with a landmark revival of The Iceman Cometh and then with the American premiere of Long Day's Journey Into Night. Mann's own long journey has been inextricably linked with O'Neill and he presents here some extremely significant previously unreported aspects of the O'Neill saga. Here is Theodore Mann's own account of the theatrical and cultural revolution that is Circle in the Square. If you ever wondered how off Broadway came to be and how it ever managed to survive, this is the tale to read. BOOK JACKET Blackwell
