Tale Of Don Lorignal:

The Tale of Don L'Original Antonine Maillet, 1978 The Tale of Don L'Original, 1989 Agencies in Feminist Translator Studies Elena Castellano-Ortolà, 2024-04-16 This book sets out a new framework for a feminist history of translators drawing on the legacy of Canadian scholar Barbara Godard and her work in establishing the Canadian literary landscape as a means of exploring agency in feminist translation studies and its implications for cross disciplinary debates The volume is organised in three sections establishing feminist translator studies as its own approach examining these dynamics at work in a comprehensive portrait of Barbara Godard's scholarly and literary history and looking ahead to future directions In situating the discussion on Godard and Canadian literary history Elena Castellano calls attention to a geographic context in which translation and its practice has been at the heart of debates around national identity and intersected with the rise of feminism and feminist literary scholarship The book demonstrates how an in depth exploration of the agency of an individual stakeholder whose activities spanned diverse communities and oft conflicting interests can engage in key questions at the intersection of nation making translation and feminism paving the way for future research and the further development of feminist translator studies as methodological framework This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies feminist literature cultural history and Canadian literature Writing between the Lines Agnes Whitfield, 2006-03-03 The essays in Writing between the Lines explore the lives of twelve of Canada's most eminent anglophone literary translators and delve into how these individuals have contributed to the valuable process of literary exchange between francophone and anglophone literatures in Canada Through individual portraits this book traces the events and life experiences that have led W H Blake John Glassco Philip Stratford Joyce Marshall Patricia Claxton Doug Jones Sheila Fischman Ray Ellenwood Barbara Godard Susanne de Lotbinière Harwood John Van Burek and Linda Gaboriau into the complex world of literary translation Each essay portrait examines why they chose to translate and what linguistic and cultural challenges they have faced in the practice of their art Following their relationships with authors and publishers the translators also reveal how they have defined the goals and the process of literary translation Containing original detailed biographical and bibliographical material Writing between the Lines offers many new insights into the literary translation process and the diverse roles of the translator as social agent The first text on Canadian translators it makes a major contribution in the areas of literary translation comparative literature Canadian literature and cultural studies National Literature in Multinational States Albert Braz, Paul D. Morris, 2023-04-13 If literature has often informed the creation of a national imaginary a sense of common history and destiny it has also complicated even challenged the unifying vision assumed in the formation of a national literature and sense of nation National Literature in Multinational States questions the persistent association of literature and nation states contrasting this with the reality of multinational and ethnocultural diversity The contributors to this collection interrogate concepts and manifestations of nationalism in the context of literary production while evaluating the place of national literatures in multinational states at a time when social unity and political agreement have never been more elusive The volume strives for synoptic analysis via the complementary multifaceted treatment of literary creation in several geo cultural contexts Canada the Caribbean Europe India and Nigeria Contributors Sabujkoli Bandopadhyay Albert Braz Matthew Cormier Doris Hambuch Clara A B Joseph Paul D Morris Asma Sayed Matthew T treault Uchechukwu Peter Umezurike Jerry White

Literary History of Canada William H. New, Carl Berger, Alan Cairns, Frances G. Halpenny, Henry Kreisel, Douglas Lochhead, Philip Stratford, Clara Thomas, 1990-12-15 This new volume of the Literary History of Canada covers the continuing development of English Canadian writing from 1972 to 1984 As with the three earlier volumes this book is an invaluable guide to recent developments in English Canadian literature and a resource for both the general reader and the specialist researcher The contributors to this volume are Laurie Ricou David Jackel Linda Hutcheon Philip Stratford Barry Cameron Balachandra Rajan Robert Fothergill Brian Parker Cynthia Zimmerman Frances Frazer Edith Fowke Bruce G Trigger Alan C Cairns Douglas Williams Carl Berger Shirley Neuman Raymond S Corteen and Frances G Halpenny

Trans/acting Culture, Writing, and Memory Eva C. Karpinski, Jennifer Henderson, Ian Sowton, Ray Ellenwood, 2013-10-30 Trans acting Culture Writing and Memory is a collection of essays written in honour of Barbara Godard one of the most original and wide ranging literary critics theorists teachers translators and public intellectuals Canada has ever produced The contributors both established and emerging scholars extend Godard s work through engagements with her published texts in the spirit of creative interchange and intergenerational relay of ideas Their essays resonate with Godard s innovative scholarship situated at the intersection of such fields as literary studies cultural studies translation studies feminist theory arts criticism social activism institutional analysis and public memory In pursuit of unexpected linkages and connections the essays venture beyond generic and disciplinary borders zeroing in on Godard s transdisciplinary practice which has been extremely influential in the way it framed questions and modelled interventions for the study of Canadian Qu b cois and Acadian literatures and cultures The authors work with the materials ranging from Canadian government policies and documents to publications concerning white supremacist organizations in Southern Ontario online materials from a Toronto based transgender arts festival a photographic mural installation commemorating the Montreal Massacre and the works of such writers and artists as Marie Clements Nicole Brossard France Daigle Nancy Huston Yvette Nolan Gail Scott Denise Desautels Louise Warren Rebecca Belmore Vera Frenkel Robert Lepage and Janet Cardiff

Minds of Our Own Wendy Robbins, Meg Luxton, Margrit Eichler, Francine Descarries, 2009-08-02 This book of personal essays by over forty women and men who founded women s studies in Canada and Qu bec explores feminist activism on campus in the pivotal decade of 1966-76 The essays document the emergence of women s studies as a new way of understanding women men and society and they challenge some current preconceptions about second wave feminist academics The contributors explain how the intellectual and political revolution begun by small groups of academics often young untenured women at universities across Canada contributed to social progress and profoundly affected the way we think speak behave understand equality and conceptualize the academy and an academic career A contextualizing essay documents the social economic political and educational climate of the time and a concluding chapter highlights the essays recurring themes and assesses the intellectual and social transformation that their authors helped set in motion The essays document the appalling sexism and racism some women encounter in seeking admission to doctoral studies in hiring in pay and in establishing the legitimacy of feminist perspectives in the academy They reveal sources of resistance too not only from colleagues and administrators but from family members and from within the self In so doing they provide inspiring examples of sisterly support and lifelong friendship
