Tales By Candlelight:

Tales by Candlelight Frank James Bellemin, 1925 Tales by Candlelight Cornelius Clarke, 2019-09-27 This is the second in the new anthology series Stories to make you Shudder Short stories have always had a place in our lives Whether it was reading comics as a child watching TV shows like Twilight Zone Tales of the Unexpected or The Outer Limits or indeed telling stories to friends and family Everyone has a story to tell that sends shivers down the spine There were two anthology series of books popular during my childhood The Pan book of Horror Stories and The Fontana Book of Ghost Stories This collection takes inspiration from those Some of the tales are of the supernatural variety while others belong most definitely in the horror category But each are best read by candlelight Now with Illustrations Winter Tales by Candlelight Robert P. Arthur, Eileen Boarman, Generic Theatre, 2005 The Lariat, 1924 Tales by Candlelight G. Novitsky, 2005-04-21 Tales by Candlelight is a mixture of madness consisting of fifteen out of the ordinary short stories each with an entertaining twist Each story is broken down by scenes that give the reader a mental picture of where the characters are and how they are brought to that destination Each story is followed by some short words that sum up the events Some of the concepts were taken from actual events as others could not be imagined in the wildest of fantasies The introduction provides a short synopsis of each mind bending adventure Fifteen Tales for Christmastide Alan Montgomery, 2012-09-25 Christmastime brings out the best and the worst in everyone These tales are written to lighten and enlighten the beautiful joys of Christmas Some are semireligious while others are more fanciful All are a joyful affirmation of the spirit felt at that time of the year
