Tales From Djakarta:

Tales from Djakarta Pramoedya Ananta Toer, 2018-05-31 A translation of short stories by the well known Indonesian author Pramoedya Ananta Toer Written in the 1950s these stories are intensely regional in flavor and modern in approach This collection includes such works as Stranded Fish Creatures Behind Houses and the great Ketjapi A History of Modern Indonesia Adrian Vickers, 2013-03-25 Since the Bali bombings of 2002 and the rise of political Islam Indonesia has frequently occupied media headlines Nevertheless the history of the fourth largest country on earth remains relatively unknown Adrian Vickers book first published in 2005 traces the history of an island country comprising some 240 million people from the colonial period through revolution and independence to the present Framed around the life story of Pramoedya Ananta Toer Indonesia s most famous and controversial novelist and playwright the book journeys through the social and cultural mores of Indonesian society focusing on the experiences of ordinary people In this new edition the author brings the story up to date revisiting his argument as to why Indonesia has yet to realise its potential as a democratic country He also examines the rise of fundamentalist Islam which has haunted Indonesia since the fall of Suharto Pramoedya Postcolonially Razif Bahari, 2007 Exile Pramoedya Ananta Toer, Andre Vltchek, Rossie Indira, 2006 Indonesia s most celebrated writer speaks out against tyranny and injustice in a young and troubled nation Science, Public Health and Nation-Building in Soekarno-Era Indonesia Vivek Neelakantan, 2017-06-23 In 1949 the newly independent Indonesia inherited a health system that was devastated by three and a half years of Japanese occupation and four years of revolutionary struggle against the Dutch Additionally the country had to cope with the resurgence of epidemic and endemic diseases The Ministry of Health had initiated a number of symbolic public health initiatives both during the Indonesian Revolution 1945 to 1949 and the early 1950s resulting in a noticeable decline of mortality These initiatives fuelled the newly independent nation s confidence because they demonstrated to the international community that Indonesia was capable of standing on its own feet Unfortunately by the mid 1950s Indonesia s public health program faltered due to a constellation of factors attributed to the political tensions between Java and the Outer Islands administrative problems corruption and rampant inflation The optimism that characterised the early years of independence gave way to despair The Soekarno era could therefore be interpreted as the era of bold plans but unfulfilled aspirations in Indonesian public health Based on extensive archival research and a close reading of Indonesian primary sources this book provides a nuanced account of the inner tensions in Indonesian public health during the twentieth century between a narrow biomedical approach that emphasised disease eradication and a holistic approach that linked public health to practical concerns of nation building A Certain Age Rudolf Mrázek, 2010-04-16 An unconventional evocative work of history and a series of moving reflections on memory modernity space and time all based on the authors interviews with elderly Indonesian intellectuals Historical Dictionary of Indonesia Audrey Kahin, 2015-10-29 A wide flung archipelago lying between the Pacific and Indian Oceans

Indonesia is the world's most populous Islamic country. For over two thousand years it was a crossroads on the major trading route between China and India but it was not brought together into a single entity until the Dutch extended their rule throughout the Netherlands East Indies in the early part of the 20th century. Declaring its independence from the Dutch in 1945 the Republic of Indonesia was ruled by only two regimes over the next half century. Throughout the years the country has continued to be dogged by an inefficient bureaucracy and by perpetual problems of corruption. However since 2004 Indonesia has successfully carried out four direct elections for president together with an equal number of elections for legislative bodies at all levels of government and has finally in 2014 elected a president with no ties to either the military or to the previous authoritarian power structure. This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Indonesia contains a chronology, an introductory essay, appendixes and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 900 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Indonesia.

Saman Ayu Utami, 2005. Saman is a story filtered through the lives of its feisty female protagonists and the enigmatic hero Saman. It is at once an exposé of the oppression of plantation workers in South Sumatra, a lyrical quest to understand the place of religion and spirituality in contemporary lives, a playful exploration of female sexuality, and a story about love in all its guises while touching on all of Indonesia's taboos: extramarital sex, political repression, and the relationship between Christians and Muslims. Saman has taken the Indonesian literary world by storm and sold over 100,000 copies in the Indonesian language and is now available for the first time in English.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Ayu Utami was born in Bogor, grew up in Jakarta, and obtained her bachelor degree in Literature Studies from University of Indonesia. She worked as a journalist for Matra, Forum, Keadilan, and D R. Not long after the New Order regime closed Tempo, Editor, and Detik, she participated in the founding of Indonesia's Alliance of Independent Journalists to protest the closure of those three weeklies. Currently she is working for the cultural journal Kalam and at Teater Utan Kayu. Saman was awarded the Prince Claus Award in the year 2000.

Batavia-Jakarta, 1600-2000 Ewald Ebing, Youetta de Jager, 2021-11-01. This is an odd book. An extensive and sometimes annotated bibliography, it is not a book in the sense of a narrative. However, if treated as a book in the traditional sense, it leads the reader through a broad spectrum of feelings of amazement, curiosity, and desire: amazement about the sheer volume, richness, and detail of the literature on Batavia; Jakarta curiosity about the contents of certain publications or series of publications with attractive titles; and a feeling of desire immediately to begin an investigation into one of the appealing subjects stumbled upon while leafing through. The bibliography contains over 5000 titles, classified into 42 broad subject categories. The vast majority of the publications consists of books, but the number of articles is also very substantial. Most of these titles (3500) were produced after 1950. The larger part of the publications are written in Indonesian, Dutch, and to a lesser extent English. But also publications in such languages as French, Chinese, German, Japanese, Russian, and many others were listed. Indexes of authors, of subjects, and of titles make this bibliography easily accessible Clearing a Space T. Day, 2022-07-04 This collection draws together the work of authors from Indonesia Australia North America and Europe in the first comprehensive attempt to relate modern Indonesian literature to the insights and approaches of postcolonial theory and literary criticism The essays in the collection range over the history of modern Indonesian literature from its beginnings in the late nineteenth century to its diversity and growth in the 1990s Some offer the fresh readings of well known texts others draw attention to aspects of the Indonesian literary tradition that have hitherto escaped the notice of scholars and critics Grounded in detailed analysis of local contexts yet enlivened by comparative and theoretical perspectives the collection places Indonesian literature at the heart of contemporary cultural concerns
