Jewish Approaches to Hinduism Richard G. Marks, 2021-09-16 This book explores past expressions of the Jewish interest in Hinduism in order to learn what Hinduism has meant to Jews living mainly in the 12th through the 19th centuries India and Hinduism though never at the center of Jewish thought claim a place in its history in the picture Jews held of the wider world of other religions and other human beings Each chapter focuses on a specific author or text and examines the literary context as well as the cultural context within and outside Jewish society that provided images and ideas about India and its religions Overall the volume constructs a history of ideas that changed over time with different writers in different settings It will be especially relevant to scholars interested in Jewish thought comparative religion interreligious dialogue and intellectual history

Història de Jacob Xalabín / History of Yakub Çelebi, 2015-09-29 The Història de Jacob Xalabín an anonymous novel written in Catalan c 1400 focuses on the figure of the Ottoman prince Yakub Çelebi son of Murad I and half brother of Bayezid I It ends with the first detailed account of the battle of Kosovo of 1389 which left a lasting mark on the history of the Balkans This text mixing historical and fictional elements is one of the earliest depictions in Western Literature of the rising Ottoman empire Because of this it is most relevant for Mediterranean studies and debates about orientalism Juan Carlos Bayo has prepared a new critical edition of this novel with an introduction and notes and Barry Taylor offers its first translation ever into the English language The volume is completed with an appendix of texts and documents on the Turkish connections of the Crown of Aragon

Journey into Europe Akbar Ahmed, 2018-02-27 An unprecedented richly detailed and clear eyed exploration of Islam in European history and civilization Tensions over Islam were escalating in Europe even before 9 11 Since then repeated episodes of terrorism together with the refugee crisis have dramatically increased the divide between the majority population and Muslim communities pushing the debate well beyond concerns over language and female dress Meanwhile the parallel rise of right wing nationalist political parties throughout the continent often espousing anti Muslim rhetoric has shaken the foundation of the European Union to its very core Many Europeans see Islam as an alien even barbaric force that threatens to overwhelm them and their societies Muslims by contrast struggle to find a place in Europe in the face of increasing intolerance In tandem anti Semitism and other forms of discrimination cause many on the continent to feel unwelcome in their European homes Akbar Ahmed an internationally renowned Islamic scholar traveled across Europe over the course of four years with his team of researchers and interviewed Muslims and non Muslims from all walks of life to investigate questions of Islam immigration and identity They spoke with some of Europe's most prominent figures including presidents and prime ministers archbishops chief rabbis grand muftis heads of right wing parties and everyday Europeans from a variety of backgrounds Their findings reveal a story of the place of Islam in European history and civilization that is more interwoven and complex than the reader might imagine while exposing both the misunderstandings and the opportunities for Europe and its Muslim communities to improve their relationship Along with an analysis of what has gone wrong and why this urgent study the fourth in a quartet examining relations between the West and the Muslim world features recommendations for promoting integration and pluralism in the twenty first century Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri, 2006 Examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th century This two volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization al-Arabiyya ,1990 Translation in the Arab World Adnan K. Abdulla, 2020-12-29 The Translation Movement of the Abbasid Period which lasted for almost three hundred years was a unique event in world history During this period much of the intellectual tradition of the Greeks Persians and Indians was translated into Arabic a language with no prior history of translation or of science medicine or philosophy This book investigates the cultural and political conflicts that translation brought into the new Abbasid state from a sociological perspective treating translation as a process and a product The opening chapters outline the factors involved in the initiation and cessation of translational activity in the Abbasid period before dealing in individual chapters with important events in the Translation Movement such as the translation of Aristotle's Poetics into Arabic Abdullah ibn al Muqaffa's seminal translation of the Indian Persian Kalilah wa Dimna into Arabic and the translation of scientific texts Other chapters address the question of whether the Abbasids had a theory of translation and why despite three hundred years of translation not a single poem was translated into Arabic The final chapter deals with the influence of translation during this period on the Arabic language Offering new readings of many issues that are associated with that period informed by modern theories of translation this is key reading for scholars and researchers in Translation Studies Oriental and Arab Studies Book History and Cultural History

Fictional Storytelling in the Medieval Eastern Mediterranean and Beyond ,2016-09-27 This volume offers an overview of the rich narrative material circulating in the medieval Mediterranean As a multilingual and multicultural zone the Eastern Mediterranean offered a broad market for tales in both oral and written form and longer works of fiction which were translated and reworked in order to meet the tastes and cultural expectations of new audiences thus becoming common intellectual property of all the peoples around the Mediterranean shores Among others the volume examines for the first time popular eastern tales such as Kalila and Dimna Sindbad Barlaam and Joasaph and Arabic epics together with their Byzantine adaptations Original Byzantine love romances both learned and vernacular are discussed together with their Persian counterparts and with later adaptations of western stories This combination of such disparate narrative material aims to highlight both the wealth of medieval storytelling and

the fundamental unity of the medieval Mediterranean world Contributors are Carolina Cupane Faustina Doufikar Aerts Massimo Fusillo Corinne Jouanno Grammatiki A Karla Bettina Kr nung Renata Lavagnini Ulrich Moennig Ingela Nilsson Claudia Ott Oliver Overwien Panagiotis Roilos Julia Rubanovich Ida Toth Robert Volk and Kostas Yiavis Iconography in Medieval Spanish Literature John E. Keller, Richard P. Kinkade, 2021-10-21 The masterpieces of medieval Spanish literature have come to be known and loved by Hispanists and more recently by others throughout the world But the brilliant illuminations with which the original manuscripts were illustrated have remained almost totally unknown on the shelves of the great European libraries To redress this woeful neglect two noted scholars here present a generous selection from this great visual treasury including many examples never before reproduced John E Keller and Richard P Kinkade have chosen five representative works dating from the mid thirteenth century to the late fifteenth to illustrate the richness of early Spanish narrative art Together these five works encompass the entire range of narrative techniques and iconography to be found in medieval Spain and reflect both foreign and native Spanish artistic tendencies The authors analyses of the relation between verbalizations and visualizations will provide students of medieval art and literature a wealth of new information expanding our knowledge of this fascinating period The beauty of many of the illuminations speaks for itself Reading Matters Ulrich Marzolph, 2023 The present book is a special gift for a special colleague and friend Defined as an Unfestschrift it gives colleagues students and friends of Regina Bendix an opportunity to express their esteem for Regina s inspiration cooperation leadership and friendship in an adequate and lasting manner The title of the present book Reading Matters is as close as possible to an English equivalent of the beautiful German double entendre Erlesen meaning both something read a reading and something exquisite Presenting matters for reading the Unfestschrift unites short contributions about readings that mattered in some way or another for the contributors readings that had an impact on their understanding of whatever they were at some time or presently are interested in The term readings is understood widely Since most of the invited contributors are academics the term implies in the first place readings of an academic or scholarly nature In a wider notion however readings also refer to any other piece of literature the perception of a piece of art a painting a sculpture a performance listening to music appreciating a folkloric performance or a fieldwork experience or just anything else whose reading or individual perception has been meaningful for the contributors in different ways Contrary to a strictly scholarly treatment of a given topic in which the author often disappears behind the subject the presentations unveil and highlight the contributor s personal involvement and thus a dimension of crucial importance for ethnographers such as the dedicatee The Turks in Egypt and their Cultural Legacy Ekmeleddin Ihsanoglu, 2012-09-01 Though Egypt was ruled by Turkish speakers through most of the period from the ninth century until 1952 the impact of Turkish culture there remains under studied This book deals with the period from 1805 to 1952 during which Turkish cultural patterns spread through reforms based on those of Istanbul may have touched more Egyptians than ever before An examination of the books newspapers and other written materials produced in Turkish including translations and of the presses involved reveals the rise and decline of Turkish culture in government the military education literature music and everyday life The author also describes the upsurge in Turkish writing generated by Young Turk exiles from 1895 to 1909 Included is a CD containing appendices of extensive bibliographic information concerning books and periodicals printed in Egypt during this period

Catalogue of Romances of Chivalry. Novels, Tales, Allegorical Romances. Apologues, Fables, National Legends. Popular Ballads, Epic and Historical Poems. Grotesque Stories Anonymous, 2024-04-07 Reprint of the original first published in 1882 The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences ,2003 The Arabian Nights Robert Irwin, 2003-10-24 This literary companion guides the reader into the labyrinth of storytelling within The Arabian Nights The Arabian Nights has become a synonym for the fabulous and the exotic Every child is familiar with the stories of Aladdin Sinbad the Sailor and Ali Baba Yet very few people even specialists in oriental literature have a clear idea of when the book was written or what exactly it is Far from being a batch of stories for children The Arabian Nights contains hundreds of narratives of all kinds fables epics erotica debates fairy tales political allegories mystical anecdotes and comedies It is a labyrinth of stories within stories Widely held in contempt in the Middle East for its frivolity and occasional obscenity the work has nevertheless had a major influence on European and American culture to the extent that the story collection must be considered as a key work in Western literature A full understanding of the writings of Voltaire Dickens Melville Proust and Borges or indeed of the origins of science fiction is impossible without some familiarity with the stories of the Nights This guide traces the development of the stories from prehistoric India and Pharaonic Egypt to modern times and explores the history of translation and imitation Above all the book uses the stories as a guide to the social history and counter culture of the medieval Near East and the world of the storyteller the snake charmer the burglar the sorcerer the drug addict the treasure hunter and the adulterer Luzac & Co.'s Oriental List ,1904
