Tales From The Crypt Man Who Was Death:

The Woman Who Loved Life Johnny Craig, Al Feldstein, 2019-09-04 This book collects all of the legendary comics stories that Craig and EC great Al Feldstein collaborated on under the pseudonym F C Aljon Of special interest to collectors we present two stories for the first time since their initial publication more than 70 years ago Moon Girl EC's first and only superhero and one of EC's earliest horror stories and Zombie Terror both scanned from the original art Plus Edna Sunday the story of a vicious woman murderer restored for the first time ever with its original never before printed shocking splash panel Twenty six stories in all with essays and commentary by EC experts Horror Comics and Religion Brandon R. Grafius, 2024-12-02 While many genres offer the potential for theological reflection and exploration of religious issues the nature of horror provides unique ways to wrestle with these questions Since EC Comics of the 1950s horror comics have performed theological work in ways that are sometimes obvious sometimes subtle but frequently surprising and provocative This collection brings together essays covering the history of horror comics from the 1950s to the present with a focus on their engagement with religious and theological issues Essays explore topics such as the morality of EC Comics cosmic indifference in the works of Junji Ito the reincarnated demons of the web comic The Devil is a Handsome Man religion and racial horror in comic voodoo and much more

Making Sense Of: Dying and Death, 2004-01-01 This book aims to extend upon the growing body of literature concerned with dying and death The book analyses various experiences and representations of dying and death from the perspective of academic disciplines as diverse as theology philosophy sociology anthropology and literature The rationale for this is simple As objects of study dying and death cannot be usefully reduced to a single academic perspective One cannot hope to gain a deep and comprehensive understanding of dying and death by gazing at them through a single lens Bringing various perspectives in a single volume aims to both accurately record those enduring properties of the phenomena such as mourning and fear whilst simultaneously analysing the diversity and heterogeneity of human beings attempts to come to terms with this most forbidding of existential horizons

Terror Train Al Feldstein, 2020-08-11 This collection features all of the stories Feldstein created for both of EC Comics crime and horror titles including the very first appearances of The Crypt Keeper and the Vault Keeper This volume collects stories Feldstein wrote and drew about The Machine Gun Mad Mobsters and The Case of the Floating Corpse as well such horror gems as The Mummy's Curse The Thing in the Swamp and our title story Terror Train Plus the most unlikely origin story of them all the tongue in cheek origin of EC Comics itself in Horror Beneath the Streets There are more than 30 stories in all with essays and commentary by EC experts

investigation for this study was for the care of bereaved human beings in the context of significant cultural shifts now shaping the twenty first century Deritualization was identified as a significant interdisciplinary concern that contributes to potential distress in processes of grieving The objective of the research was the development of a practical theology of compassionate caregiving for the bereaved with deference to the problem of deritualization The theoretical framework was guided by the Oxford Interdisciplinary Research model and the Loyola Institute of Ministries model of practical theology The study was designed for applied research for funeral directors and vocational pastors utilizing qualitative research methods Hermeneutical and empirical components addressed six research questions through two domains of inquiry disciplinary perspectives and educational dynamics of bereavement caregiving Using the method of hermeneutics to critically evaluate the first two research questions three disciplinary fields of knowledge were examined and integrated from the perspective of pastoral care funeral service bereavement psychology and practical theology Each discipline individually converged upon meaningful caregiving meaning reconstruction and meaning reframing as significant modes of bereavement care Using ethnographic semi structured interviews to critically evaluate the remaining four research questions data were collected from a Christian university and a mortuary college The interview questionnaire included twenty five main questions organized in four parts Philosophy of Education Hermeneutics of Bereaved Families Care of Bereaved Families and Encounter of Bereaved Families The study utilized two cycles of qualitative coding techniques to report the findings of each participating school A hybrid form of in vivo and holistic coding as well as a second cycle of pattern coding distilled the interview responses into actionable statements that reinforced bereavement caregiving By synthesizing all of the findings a compelling case was made for a paradigm of comforting presence supported by principles from a Louwian perspective of practical theology including theological anthropology promissiotherapy bipolarity and hermeneutics The study connected a philosophy of meaning reframing and a paradigm of comforting presence to a meta theoretical framework within a narrative approach to care The research elucidated an interdisciplinary understanding that contributed toward a compassionate practical theology of caregiving for the bereaved

Creepshow Simon Brown,2019-07-09 Released in cinemas in 1982 Creepshow is typically regarded as a minor entry in both the film output of George A Romero and the history of adaptations of the works of Stephen King Yet this lack of critical attention hides the fact that Creepshow is the only full collaboration between America s bestselling author of horror tales and one of the masters of modern American horror cinema Long considered too mainstream for the director of Dawn of the Dead 1978 too comic for the author that gave audiences the film versions of Carrie 1976 and The Shining 1980 and too violent for a cinemagoing public turning away from gore cinema in the autumn of 1982 Creepshow is here reassessed by Simon Brown who examines the making and release of the film and its legacy through a comic book adaptation and two sequels His analysis focuses on the key influences on the film not just Romero and King but also the anthology horrors of Amicus Productions body horror cinema and the special make up effects of Tom Savini the relationship between horror and humor and most notably the tradition of EC horror comics of the 1950s from which the film draws both its thematic preoccupations and its visual style Ultimately the book argues that not only is Creepshow a major work in the canons of Romero and King but also that it represents a significant example of the portmanteau horror film of the blending of horror and comedy and finally decades before the career of Zack Snyder Watchmen Man of Steel of attempting to recreate a comic book aesthetic on the big screen

Courting Death Desmond Manderson, 1999-09-20 This collection deals with complex issues relating to death such as mercy killings the right to die and murder the relationship will always be controversial This timely and provocative collection brings together scholars from Australia Britain and the US

Death and Delusion Jerry S. Piven, 2006-09-01 This book argues that conventional interpretation of Freudian psychology has not accounted for the death anxiety and its relation to illusions and delusions It contends that there is evidence to support the view that death anxiety is a very normal and central emotional threat human beings deal with by impeding awareness of the threat

The Routledge Handbook of Law and Death Marc Trabsky, Imogen Jones, 2024-10-01 The Routledge Handbook of Law and Death provides a comprehensive survey of contemporary scholarship on the intersections of law and death in the 21st century It showcases how socio legal scholars have contributed to the critical turn in death studies and how the sociology of death has impacted upon the discipline of law In bringing together prominent academics and emerging experts from a diverse range of disciplines the Handbook shows how far from shunning questions of mortality legal institutions incessantly talk about death Touching upon the epistemologies and materialities of death and problems of contested deaths and posthumous harms the Handbook questions what is distinctive about the disciplinary alignment of law and death how law regulates and manages death in the everyday and how thinking with law can enrich our understandings of the presence of death in our lives In a time when the world is facing global inequalities in living and dying and legal institutions are increasingly interrogating their relationships to death this Handbook makes for essential reading for scholars students and practitioners in law humanities and the social sciences

Encyclopedia of the Zombie June Michele Pulliam, Anthony J. Fonseca, 2014-06-19 A fascinating read for anyone from general readers to hardcore fans and scholars this encyclopedia covers virtually every aspect of the zombie as cultural phenomenon including film literature folklore music video games and events The proliferation of zombie related fiction film games events and other media in the last decade would seem to indicate that zombies are the new vampires in popular culture The editors and contributors of Encyclopedia of the Zombie The Walking Dead in Popular Culture and Myth took on the prodigious task of covering all aspects of the phenomenon from the less known historical and cultural origins of the zombie myth to the significant works of film and literature as well as video games in the modern day that feature the insatiable relentless zombie character The encyclopedia examines a wide range of significant topics pertaining to zombies such as zombies in the pulp magazines the creation of the figure of the zuevbie to subvert decades of censorship by the Comics Code of Authority Humans vs Zombies a popular zombie themed game played on college campuses across the country and annual Halloween zombie walks Organized alphabetically to facilitate use of the encyclopedia as a research tool it also includes entries on important scholarly works in the expanding field of zombie studies Horror Film Directors, 1931-1990 Dennis Fischer,2024-10-17 This is an exhaustive study of the major directors of horror films in the six decade period For each director there is a complete filmography including television work a career summary critical assessment and behind the scenes production information Fifty directors are covered in depth but there is an additional section on the hopeless the obscure the promising and the up and coming Terror on the Air! Richard J. Hand,2012-10-26 The macabre world of monsters killers on the loose and revenge from beyond the grave existed not only in the movies but also on the radio before television s dominance in American homes One of many distinct genres born of early broadcasting terror inspiring radio thrilled millions Nearly 80 such programs many of enduring sophistication aired every week in the late 1940s This first full length study of golden age horror radio focuses on six representative programs starting with The Witch s Tale in 1931 and ending with The Mysterious Traveler in 1952 Each chapter is a critically and historically informed study of one series The book ends with a look at the demise of horror radio and its enduring influence Photographs are included Denying Death Lindsey A. Harvell,Gwendelyn S. Nisbett,2016-02-19 This volume is the first to showcase the interdisciplinary nature of Terror Management Theory providing a detailed overview of how rich and diverse the field has become since the late 1980s and where it is going in the future It offers perspectives from psychology political science communication health sociology business marketing and cultural studies among others and in the process reveals how our existential ponderings permeate our behavior in almost every area of our lives It will interest a wide range of upper level students and researchers who want an overview of past and current TMT research and how it may be applied to their own research interests Came the Dawn Wallace Wood,Al Feldstein,2012-11-15 Taking its title from one of Wallace Wood s all time classics the evil little paranoid thriller Came the Dawn this collection features page after page after page of Wood s sleek and meticulously crafted artwork put in the service of cunning twist ending stories most often from the typewriter of EC editor Al Feldstein These tales range from supernatural shockers from the pages of Tales From the Cryptand The Haunt of Fear The Living Corpse Terror Ride Man From the Grave Horror in the Freak Tent to often pointedly contemporary crime thrillers from Crime SuspensStories The Assault The Whipping and Confession which was singled out for specific excoriation in the anti comics screed Seduction of the Innocent thus giving it a special cachet but the breathtaking art and whiplash inducing shock endings are constants throughout Walter Hill Wayne Byrne,2022-10-17 This is a comprehensive journey through the long career of auteur Hollywood filmmaker Walter Hill director of The Driver The Warriors Southern Comfort 48 Hrs Streets of Fire and many more The book covers every motion picture that Hill directed with historical detail and critical commentary on each and discusses Hill s overall cultural relevance and industrial impact It includes candid conversations with Hill producer Larry Gordon actors Nicholas Guest William Sadler and Michael Pare cinematographers Lloyd Ahern and Matthew Leonetti composers Van Dyke Parks and David Mansfield screenwriter Larry Gross and others who worked with Hill throughout his prolific career

Flannery O'Connor in the Age of Terrorism Avis Hewitt,2010-07-28 In any age humans wrestle with apparently inexorable forces Today we face the threat of global terrorism In the aftermath of September 11 few could miss sensing that a great evil was at work in the world In Flannery O Connor s time the threats came from different sources World War II the Cold War and the Korean conflict but they were just as real She too lived though a time of terror The first major critical volume on Flannery O Connor s work in more than a decade Flannery O Connor in the Age of Terrorism explores issues of violence evil and terror themes that were never far from O Connor s reach and that seem particularly relevant to our present day setting The fifteen essays collected here offer a wide range of perspectives that explore our changing views of violence in a post 9 11 world and inform our understanding of a writer whose fiction abounds in violence Written by both established and emerging scholars the pieces that editors Avis Hewitt and Robert Donahoo have selected offer a compelling and varied picture of this iconic author and her work Included are comparisons of O Connor to 1950s writers of noir literature and to the contemporary American novelist Cormac McCarthy cultural studies that draw on horror comics of the Cold War and on Fordism and the American mythos of the automobile and pieces that shed new light on O Connor s complex religious sensibility and its role in her work While continuing to speak fresh truths about her own time O Connor s fiction also resonates deeply with the postmodern sensibilities of audiences increasingly distant from her era readers absorbed in their own terrors and sense of looming ineffable threats This provocative new collection presents O Connor s work as a touchstone for understanding where our culture has been and where we are now With its diverse approaches Flannery O Connor in the Age of Terrorism will prove useful not only to scholars and students of literature but to anyone interested in history popular culture theology and reflective writing

Death Investigation in America Jeffrey M. Jentzen,2009-10-30 A death occurs at home in a hospital on a street why As Jeffrey Jentzen reveals we often never know Why is the American system of death investigation so inconsistent and inadequate What can the events of the assassination of President Kennedy killing of Bobby Kennedy and Chappaquiddick reveal about the state of death investigation If communities in early America had a coroner at all he was politically appointed and poorly trained As medicine became more sophisticated and the medical profession more confident physicians struggled to establish a professionalized physician led system of death investigation The conflict between them and the coroners as well as politicians and law enforcement agencies led to the patchwork of local laws and practices that persist to this day In this unique political and cultural history Jentzen draws on archives interviews and his own career as a medical examiner to look at the way that a long standing professional and political rivalry controls public medical knowledge and public health
