Taming Cannabis David Alan Guba Jr,2020-09-23 Despite having the highest rates of cannabis use in the continent France enforces the most repressive laws against the drug in all of Europe Perhaps surprisingly France was once the epicentre of a global movement to medicalize cannabis specifically hashish in the treatment of disease In Taming Cannabis David Guba examines how nineteenth century French authorities routinely blamed hashish consumption especially among Muslim North Africans for behaviour deemed violent and threatening to the social order This association of hashish with violence became the primary impetus for French pharmacists and physicians to tame the drug and deploy it in the homeopathic treatment of mental illness and epidemic disease during the 1830s and 1840s Initially heralded as a wonder drug capable of curing insanity cholera and the plague hashish was deemed ineffective against these diseases and fell out of repute by the middle 1850s The association between hashish and Muslim violence however remained and became codified in French colonial medicine and law by the 1860s authorities framed hashish as a significant cause of mental illness violence and anti state resistance among indigenous Algerians As the French government looks to reform the nation s drug laws to address the rise in drug related incarceration and the growing popular demand for cannabis legalization Taming Cannabis provides a timely and fascinating exploration of the largely untold and living history of cannabis in colonial France

Cannabis, Sacred and Profane Christopher Partridge,2024-08-22 Focussing on the ways in which cannabis has been demonized sacralized and normalized Christopher Partridge analyses the complex and often difficult relationship Western societies have had with the plant since the nineteenth century After an introduction to cannabis and its uses the book discusses how and why it was constructed as a profane influence and a marker of deviance It then examines the emergence of medicinal cannabis showing how this has contributed to its normalization and even its sacralization Finally there is a discussion of sacred cannabis which looks at its use within modern occultism Rastafari and several cannabis churches Overall the book provides a cultural history of cannabis in the modern world which exposes the underlying reasons for the various and changing attitudes to this popular psychoactive substance

Fifty Years in the East Farhad Daftary,2014-12-02 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Few fields of Islamic studies have witnessed as much progress in modern times as Ismaili studies and in even fewer instances has the role of a single individual been as pivotal in initiating progress as that of Wladimir Ivanow 1886 1970 whose memoirs are now published here for the first time The breakthrough in modern Ismaili studies occurred mainly as a result of the recovery and study of a large number of texts relating to the field which had not been available to the earlier generations of orientalists The Persian and Arabic Ismaili manuscripts many edited and published by Ivanow reflect a rich diversity of intellectual and literary traditions Ivanow left his native Russia soon after the October Revolution of 1917 and settled in India where he was formally commissioned in 1931 by Sultan Muhammad Shah Aga Khan III the 48th Imam of the Nizari Ismailis to investigate the history and teachings of the Ismailis Henceforth Ivanow began the systematic recovery and study of texts from this tradition of Shi i Islam discovered in India the Middle East and Central Asia amongst other regions He also played a key role in the establishment of the Ismaili Society the first research institution of its kind with a major collection of Ismaili manuscripts Ivanow made these manuscripts available to other scholars thereby contributing to further progress in the field Ivanow completed his memoirs entitled Fifty Years in the East in 1968 shortly before his death This work originally written in Russian is comprised of an autobiography and vivid accounts from his travels These convey his ethnologist s interest in the archaeology of the way of life and profound curiosity for regional customs and languages The memoirs written in Tehran during Ivanow s final years have now been edited with substantial annotations by Farhad Daftary They reveal for the first time the circumstances under which modern Ismaili studies were initiated and an eyewitness account of several regions during the early decades of the twentieth century before the rapid onset of modernisation Village Folk-tales of Ceylon
