Sinology during the Cold War Antonina Łuszczkiewicz, Michael Brose, 2022-05-19 This volume provides the first study of the history of sinology aka China studies as charted across several communist states during the Cold War The People's Republic of China was created in the first years of the Cold War with its early history and foreign policy intimately bound up in that larger geopolitical fight All the seismic changes in China's geopolitical landscape from its emergence and close relationship with the Soviet Union to the Sino Soviet split and the eventual rapprochement with the United States resulted in a great deal of interest by journalists politicians and scholars Yet although scholars across the Soviet Bloc produced an impressive body of work on a range of sinological studies with rare exceptions most of those scholars and their work remains unknown outside their own intellectual circles This book redresses this dearth of knowledge of sinological scholarship providing invaluable and unique glimpses of Soviet Bloc sinologists and their work during the Cold War including cutting edge research on lesser studied communist states such as Poland Hungary Mongolia and others International in scope this book is ideal for scholars and researchers of modern history Chinese studies sinology and the Cold War
