

A COUNTRY LOST FOR A LOVE.

The destiny of nations like those of individuals, are often decided by circumstances that of themselves appear but the most trivial in character, as the course of an important river is changed by a swirling obstacle to its way. And when this has occurred to divert from the natural path, as history, it is not to assume that the majority of cases the immediate cause may be traced to the influence, as often all counselling, rather "under power." The destiny of civilisation is therefore but
