Whited, 2024-02-26 In her follow up to The Ivory Tower and Harry Potter Lana A Whited has compiled a new collection of essays analyzing the books films and other media by J K Rowling This includes pieces on the Harry Potter books and movies Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them films The Cursed Child play as well as her writing outside the wizarding universe such as The Ickabog The Casual Vacancy and the Cormoran Strike series Many of the chapters explore works that influenced the Harry Potter series including Classical epic Shakespearian comedy and tragedy and Arthurian myth In addition to literary comparison the volume delves into topics like political authoritarianism distrust of the media racial and social justice and developments in fandom It s fair to say that much has changed in regard to Harry Potter and J K Rowling scholarship in the twenty years since the first volume s publication While it was once considered a universally beloved book series the relationship between HP and its fans has grown more complicated in recent years As its readers have grown older and Rowling s reputation has wavered in the public eye Whited and her contributors consider the complicated legacy of Harry Potter and its author and explore how the series will evolve in the next twenty years Tales I Never Told! Michael Winner, 2011-10-31 Michael Winner s new book Tales I Never Told is scurrilous affectionate and sometimes sensational Winner s tales have a cast including Simon Cowell Sir Michael Caine Marlon Brando Burt Lancaster Faye Dunaway and many others of great fame and even some of less fame The tales recount things that have happened in Winner s life This is a man who lived with the stars and lived through extraordinary experiences The book is a dazzling mix of genuine food expertise from the man who says he knows nothing about food but is arguably the most read food columnist in the world and acerbic wit in telling the stories with which Michael has entertained his friends for years Winner is full of surprises none greater than when he married his long time girlfriend Geraldine Lynton Edwards in September 2011 His life has been extraordinary At age fourteen he had a show column in twenty seven newspapers He was at Cambridge aged seventeen and came out with an Honours Degree in law and economics at twenty He was for a while the youngest movie director in the English speaking language His career included decades in Hollywood and the producing and or directing of some of the most famous films of the twentieth century including the Death Wish series His films have been shown at the Venice San Francisco and Cannes film festivals In early 2011 the American Cinematheque in Los Angeles mounted a three day tribute to him showing six of his movies with Michael giving his well known one man show on one evening and speaking between movies on the others He became a food critic by accident but has nevertheless been writing in the Sunday Times for over sixteen years He has never missed a week even when he was in intensive care and heavily dosed with morphine The book also includes the last year of his Sunday Times reviews to bring people up to date with what is going on in that arena

Transforming the Ivory Tower Brett C. Stockdill, Mary Yu Danico, 2012-03-15 People outside and within colleges and universities often view these institutions as fair and reasonable far removed from the inequalities that afflict society in general Despite greater numbers of women working class people and people of color as well as increased visibility for LGBTQ students and staff over the past fifty years universities remain ivory towers that perpetuate institutionalized forms of sexism classism racism and homophobia Transforming the Ivory Tower builds on the rich legacy of historical struggles to open universities to dissenting voices and oppressed groups Each chapter is guided by a commitment to praxis the idea that theoretical understandings of inequality must be applied to concrete strategies for change The common misconception that racism sexism and homophobia no longer plague university life heightens the difficulty to dismantle the interlocking forms of oppression that undergird the ivory tower Contributors demonstrate that women LGBTQ people and people of color continue to face systemic forms of bias and discrimination on campuses throughout the U S Curriculum and pedagogy evaluation of scholarship and the processes of tenure and promotion are all laden with inequities both blatant and covert The contributors to this volume defy the pressure to assimilate by critically examining personal and collective struggles Speaking from different social spaces and backgrounds they analyze antiracist feminist and queer approaches to teaching and mentoring research and writing academic culture and practices growth and development of disciplines campus activism university community partnerships and confronting privilege Transforming the Ivory Tower will be required reading for all students faculty and administrators seeking to understand bias and discrimination in higher education and to engage in social justice work on and off college campuses It offers a proactive approach encompassing institutional and cultural changes that foster respect inclusion and transformation Contributors Michael Armato Rick Bonus Jose Guillermo Zapata Calderon Mary Yu
