Tales 1812 Other Selected Poems:

Stranger Magic Marina Warner, 2012-03-01 Our foremost theorist of myth fairytale and folktale explores the magical realm of the imagination where carpets fly and genies grant prophetic wishes Stranger Magic examines the profound impact of the Arabian Nights on the West the progressive exoticization of magic and the growing acceptance of myth and magic in contemporary experience Crabbe's Arabesque Ronald B. Hatch, 1976-01-01 Reviews and Essays of Austin Clarke Austin Clarke, 1995 Austin Clarke is widely regarded as one of 20th century Ireland's most important poets In this selection of nearly fifty essays and reviews written over Clarke's long career he demonstrates that he is an astute and provocative literary critic as well Having grown up in Dublin when the excitement of the Irish Literary Revival was still running high Clarke knew many of the principal figures of that movement personally and his readings of Yeats Joyce Synge O'Casey Lady Gregory George Moore and others enjoy the advantages of an insider's point of view Moreover committed in his own poetry to the basic assumption that fuelled the Literary Revival that the most productive course for Irish literature lay in the direction not of England but of Ireland Clarke in his criticism provides a way of understanding and judging the Revival's major writers in terms of their relationships to Ireland's rich literary and cultural traditions At the same time these essays call attention to a number of distinctly Irish but often overlooked writers working on the margins of the revival As Yeats observed more than once the Irish for all the contributions that they have made to modern fiction poetry and drama have fallen somewhat short in the genre of literary criticism Austin Clarke's essays and reviews many of which were written under a pseudonym and so not attributed to Clarke for years go a long way towards filling that gap University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System). Institute of Library Research, University of California, Berkeley, 1972 The Papers of Thomas Jefferson, Retirement Series, Volume 6 Thomas Jefferson, 2018-06-05 Volume Six of the definitive edition of Thomas Jefferson's papers from the end of his presidency until his death presents 516 documents from 11 March to 27 November 1813 Although free from the cares of government Jefferson cannot disassociate himself from politics entirely He recommends to President James Madison during the War of 1812 that gunboats be used to protect the Chesapeake Bay and writes to his congressional son in law John Wayles Eppes urging the repayment of the national debt and the reining in of the American banking system Jefferson remains active and healthy making trips to his beloved Poplar Forest estate entertaining visitors at Monticello and happily supervising the education of his grandchildren and other relations His correspondence shows no signs of abating he writes to John Waldo and John Wilson to discuss the improvement of English orthography addresses Isaac McPherson as part of a plea for limits on government sanctioned intellectual property rights and provides a study of Meriwether Lewis for Nicholas Biddle's History of the Expedition under the command of Captains Lewis and Clark Finally this volume records the most intense period of correspondence between Jefferson and John Adams during their retirement In an exchange of thirty one letters the two men reveal their hopes and fears for the nation The Drama of Storytelling in T.E. Brown's Manx Yarns Max Keith Sutton,1991 This study deals with the Manx poet T E Brown and his rustic persona in perhaps the most sustained dramatization of the trails and triumphs of storytelling in British poetry Fo c s le Yarns Labouring Muses William J. Christmas,2001 The Labouring Muses is the first study to bring together a wide range of verse published by laboring class authors between 1730 and 1830 The book examines a total of sixteen case studies that establish a specifically English tradition of laboring class poetics Xerox College Library Book Program ,1970 Social Values and Poetic Acts Jerome J. McGann,1988 Cultural Constructions of Madness in Eighteenth-Century Writing A. Ingram,M. Faubert,2004-11-30 Cultural Constructions of Madness in the Eighteenth Century deals with the mis representation of insanity through a substantial range of literary forms and figures from across the eighteenth century and beyond Chapters cover the representation distortion sentimentalization and elevation of insanity and such associated issues as gender personal identity and performance in some of the best as well as some of the least known writers of the period A selection of visual material including works by Hogarth Rowlandson and Gillray is also discussed While primarily adopting a literary focus the work is informed throughout by an alertness to significant issues of medical and psychiatric history A Quest for Home Christopher J. P. Smith,1997-01-01 This study re places the prolific and controversial writer Robert Southey 1774 1843 within the literary context of the 1790s and beyond a context in which he played so central a role George Crabbe

Arthur Pollard,2003-09-01 The Critical Heritage gathers together a large body of critical sources on major figures in literature Each volume presents contemporary responses to a writer s work enabling students and researchers to read for themselves for example comments on early performances of Shakespeare s plays or reactions to the first publication of Jane Austen s novels The carefully selected sources range from landmark essays in the history of criticism to journalism and contemporary opinion and little published documentary material such as letters and diaries Significant pieces of criticism from later periods are also included in order to demonstrate the fluctuations in an author s reputation Each volume contains an introduction to the writer s published works a selected bibliography and an index of works authors and subjects The Collected Critical Heritage set will be available as a set of 68 volumes and the series will also be available in mini sets selected by period in slipcase boxes and as individual volumes The Cambridge History of English Poetry Michael O'Neill,2010-04-29 Poetry written in English is uniquely powerful and suggestive in its capacity to surprise unsettle shock console and move The Cambridge History of English Poetry offers sparkingly fresh and dynamic readings of an extraordinary range of poets and poems from Beowulf to Alice Oswald An international team of experts explores how poets in England Scotland Wales and Ireland use language and to what effect examining questions of form tone and voice they comment too on how formal choices are inflected by the poet s time and place The Cambridge History of English Poetry is the most comprehensive and authoritative history of the field from early medieval times to the present It traces patterns of continuity transformation transition and development Covering a remarkable array of poets and poems and featuring an extensive bibliography the scope and depth of this major work of reference make it required reading for anyone interested in poetry

Choice ,1968 Felicia Hemans: Selected Poems, Prose and Letters Felicia Hemans,2002-01-22 Felicia Hemans was the most widely read woman poet in the nineteenth century English speaking world Broadview s edition shows why she was one of the few standard poets to be found in middle class homes on both sides of the Atlantic despite being routinely disparaged as a merely feminine poet Included here is poetry representative of her entire career from often anthologized works such as The Homes of England and Casabianca to several long poems in their entirety such as The Forest Sanctuary Also included are selections of her prose and letters a comprehensive introduction and selections of views and reviews showing her changing and controversial place in culture into the twentieth century All selections are edited annotated and introduced Commoners J. M. Neeson,1993 Challenging the view that England had no peasantry or that it had disappeared before industrialization this text shows that common right and petty landholding shaped social relations in English villages Their loss at enclosure sharpened social antagonisms and imprinted a pervasive sense of loss Catalogue [by R. Triphook?] of the library [of F.M.R. Currer] at Eshton-hall in the county of York Robert Triphook,1820

Histories of Scientific Observation Lorraine Daston,Elizabeth Lunbeck,2011-01-15 Observation is the most pervasive and fundamental practice of all the modern sciences both natural and human Its instruments include not only the naked senses but also tools such as the telescope and microscope the questionnaire the photographic plate the notebook the glassed in beehive and myriad other ingenious inventions designed to make the invisible visible the evanescent permanent the abstract concrete Yet observation has almost never been considered as an object of historical inquiry in itself This wide ranging collection offers the first examination of the history of scientific observation in its own right as both epistemic category and scientific practice Histories of Scientific Observation features engaging episodes drawn from across the spectrum of the natural and human sciences ranging from meteorology medicine and natural history to economics astronomy and psychology The contributions spotlight how observers have scrutinized everything from seaweed to X ray radiation household budgets to the emotions with ingenuity curiosity and perseverance verging on obsession This book makes a compelling case for the significance of the long surprising and epistemologically significant history of scientific observation a history full of innovations that have enlarged the possibilities of perception judgment and reason Women and Property in the Eighteenth-Century English Novel April London,1999-06-28 This book investigates the critical importance of women to the eighteenth century debate on property as conducted in the fiction of the period April London argues that contemporary novels advanced several often conflicting interpretations of the relation of women to property ranging from straightforward assertions of equivalence between women and things to subtle explorations of the self possession open to those denied a full civic identity Two contemporary models for the defining of selfhood through reference to property structure the book one historical classical republicanism and bourgeois individualism and the other literary pastoral and georgic These paradigms offer a cultural context for the analysis of both canonical and less well known writers from Samuel Richardson and Henry Mackenzie to Clara Reeve and Jane West While this study focuses on fiction from 1740 1800 it also draws on the historiography literary criticism and philosophy of the period and on recent feminist and cultural studies
