Tales About Prime Ministers In Chinese H:

Beyond Pain Thomas A. Breslin, 2001-10-30 Breslin demonstrates that for two millennia states in East Asia Europe and America have successfully used pleasure to protect themselves and advance their interests at a small fraction of the cost of militarized policies Indeed the Chinese demonstrated that pleasure based policies primed a stream of highly profitable foreign trade and bolstered the state Pleasure was feared because it was effective as both an offensive and defensive strategy The colleens of Ireland and the bibis of India showed how inexorably effective pleasure could be in confounding militarily stronger invaders In contrast resorting to violence and pain generally undermined aggressive states Cultural factors have shaped the choice of pleasures used Food centered China has used food as well as sex and tourism as tools in its foreign relations Rome used wine Byzantium precious metals banquets and public spectacles Venice sex money and art England money and education America has used sex money education music and tourism Breslin s provocative text is based on a wide reading of secondary sources and some primary sources as well as a quarter century of teaching the history of foreign relations His Stubbornship: Prime Minister Wang Anshi (1021--1086), Reformer and Poet Jonathan O.
