Tales From Old Baghdad:

The Middlepause Marina Benjamin, 2017-03-14 In The Middlepause Benjamin deftly and brilliantly examines the losses and unexpected gains she experienced in menopause Menopause is a mind and body shift as monumental and universal as puberty yet far less often discussed especially in public which is what makes Benjamin's work here so urgently necessary Kate Tuttle The Los Angeles Times The Middlepause offers a vision of contentment in middle age without sentiment or delusion Marina Benjamin weighs the losses and opportunities of our middle years taking inspiration from literature science philosophy and her own experience Spurred by her surgical propulsion into a sudden menopause she finds ways to move forward while maintaining clear-eyed acknowledgment of the challenges of aging Attending to complicated elderly parents and a teenaged daughter experiencing bereavement her own health woes and a fresh impetus to give Benjamin emerges into a new definition of herself as daughter mother citizen and woman Among The Middlepause's many wise observations about no longer being young I am discovering that I care less about what other people think My needs are leaner and my storehouse fuller It is not possible to fully appreciate what it means to age without attending to what the body knows I have always had a knee-jerk distaste for the idea that age is all in the mind You need a cohort of peers to go through the aging process with you A cackle of crones A cavalry Marina Benjamin's memoir will serve as a comfort a companion to women going through the too seldom spoken of physical and mental changes in middle age and beyond Tales from an Old Soldier's Footlocker Logan Barbee, 2024-03-11 In basic training every soldier used to keep a wooden footlocker near the bed It was a place to store trinkets memorabilia photos and keepsakes That's how Logan Browning Barbee a retired U.S. Army colonel who later served as an adviser to the Iraqi government thinks about this book as a place to hold a hodgepodge of stories In addition to his career in the military and government Barbee was a teacher merchant seaman county extension director at the University of Florida family man and so much more In this memoir he shares highlights from his life beginning with his boyhood in the country in Calhoun County North Florida to a jarring move as a teenager when he moved to town He missed country living and went from being an A student to a C student He also looks back at joining the Merchant Marines being drafted serving twenty-two years in the Army his time in Iraq and a lifetime of adventures Join the author as he shares tales from his footlocker that reveal his identity personality and legacy Tales from Old Baghdad Khalid Kishtainy, 1997 Partially based on Kishtainy's recollections of his childhood this satiric novel affords a glimpse of traditional Muslim life busy with squabbling relatives jealous imams and lecherous neighbors Famous Cities Search-a-Word Puzzles Peter Lewis, 2001-06-28 Find groups of letters that spell the names of waterways airports landmarks royal residences and more of such cities as Rome Mecca Oslo Montreal Hong Kong Istanbul Athens and New York 50 puzzles Banipal, 2003 Folktales of the Jews, V. 3 (Tales from Arab Lands) Dan Ben Amos, 2011-05-01 Thanks to these generous donors for making the publication of the books in this series possible Lloyd E. and books Featuring an extensive introduction to the subject and its literature by Peter Sluglett this bibliography will help readers to find their way through the massive secondary literature now available Following the pattern established by the Index Islamicus both journal articles and book publications are included as well as important internet resources The editors have taken care to add much new material to bring its coverage up to date and supplement the previously published volumes while the most important and or influential publications are conveniently highlighted in the introduction An indispensable gateway for all those with a more than superficial interest in what is and what has been happening in this nation so much the focus of attention today
