The Avatar of 1786: Decolonizing the Penang Story Ahmad Murad Merican, 2023-10-11

There must be a closure to the history of Pulau Pinang and Kedah. There was no 1786 treaty, no agreement, no document, no signatories. The narrative continues independent of each other, representing an uncomfortable conscience glancing at each as two separate polities of Penang and Kedah, socially and intellectually structured by the year 1786. This book makes a strange revisit to pretension of a fact event. And it counters the terra nullius doctrine. It also establishes that the lex loci was the Adat Temenggong customary law modified by the Qanun laws of Kedah. Malay collective memory maintains that Pulau Pinang is integral to the Kedah Sultanate. The island has law, order, and society before the presence of the Europeans, not a band of natives and fishermen as stereotyped by the colonial narrative, even in the colonial courts. The Malays in Pulau Pinang in recent decades have become beggars to their own history. This book contests that history through moral and legal arguments as well as raising the themes and issues of representation and redemption.
