Alice Munro and the Anatomy of the Short Story Oriana Palusci, 2018-01-23 Alice Munro has devoted her entire career to the short story form in her fourteen collections, having won the Nobel Prize in Literature as master of the contemporary short story. This edited volume investigates her art as a storyteller, the processes she performs on the contemporary short story genre in her creative anatomical theatre. Divided into five topical sections, it is a collection of scholarly chapters which offer textual insights into a single story, compare two or more texts, or casts a more panoramic view on Munro's literary production, embracing stories from her first collection Dance of the Happy Shades to her last published Dear Life. Through different critical approaches that range from post-structuralism to cultural studies, from linguistics and rhetorical analyses to translation studies, the authors insist on the concept that no fixed patterns prevail in her short stories as Munro has constantly developed, challenged, and revised existing modes of generic configuration while discussing the fluidity the elusiveness the indeterminacy the ambiguity of her superb writing Media Review Digest C. Edward Wall,2006
