Working the Dead Beat Sandra Martin, 2012-09-11

Longlisted for the Charles Taylor Prize and selected as a Globe and Mail Top 100 Book and an iTunes Store Best Book Globe and Mail columnist Sandra Martin honours the lives of Canada's famous, infamous and unsung heroes in this unique collection of obituaries of the first decade of the twenty-first century. Here are Canadian icons such as Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau, economist John Kenneth Galbraith, social activist June Callwood and urban theorist Jane Jacobs. Here are builders such as feminist and editor Doris Anderson and businessman and famed art collector Ken Thomson. Here are our rogues, rascals and romantics, our service men and women, and here are those private citizens whose lives have had an undeniable public impact. Finally, Martin interweaves these elegant and eloquent biographies with the autobiography of the obit writer offering an exclusive and intimate view of life on the dead beat. Beautifully written, compelling and vivid, Working the Dead Beat is a tribute to those individuals who each on their own and as a collective tell the story of our country and to the life of the obit writer who chronicles their extraordinary lives. Amazing Tales from the Chicago Bears Sideline Steve McMichael, John Mullin, 2017-09-05

More than just a football team, the Chicago Bears are a vital part of Chicago culture. After close to a century of play, the Bears have won more regular season games than any other NFL franchise. With twenty-seven players in the Hall of Fame and fourteen retired jerseys, it's no wonder the Bears are a beloved, storied franchise. But the Bears, like Chicago, are not just people; they are true personalities. In Amazing Tales From the Chicago Bears Sideline, Bears fans can read about the men who have made the Bears one of the greatest teams in pro football: George Halas, Dick Butkus, Mike Ditka, Jay Culter, Richard Dent, Dan Hampton, and many others. Former Bears star Steve McMichael takes a front-row seat in this collection of stories. Readers get an opportunity to relive the glory years of a charter NFL franchise as seen through the eyes of a legendary player. McMichael covers it all: from training camp misadventures in Lake Forest, Illinois, and Platteville, Wisconsin, to Ditka's locker room tirades, to nights on the town with teammates and behind-the-scenes glimpses of historic moments. From first kick-off to overtime play, Amazing Tales from the Chicago Bears Sideline covers some of the franchise's greatest moments and is a must-have for any true Bears fan. Cleveland TV Tales Mike Olszewski, Janice Olszewski, 2014-10-15

Remember when TV was just three channels and the biggest celebrities in Cleveland were an outrageous movie host named Ghoulardi, a gentle elf named Barnaby, and a tough-as-nails newswoman named Dorothy Fuldheim? These pioneering entertainers invented television programming before our very eyes while we watched from our living rooms. Revisit the early days of local TV in these fun and fact-filled stories featuring Paige Palmer, the fitness host who smoked four packs a day; Smooth-voiced Captain Penny, who reminded us "You can't fool Mom"; Volatile talk show host Alan Douglas, who pushed guests' hot buttons sometimes until they punched back; Gene Carroll, longtime king of the amateur hour; Woodrow the Woodsman; Romper Room's Miss Barbara; Jungle Larry; and many other local favorites. Travel Tales

Compensating for Psychological Deficits and Declines Roger A. Dixon, Lars B., ckman, Lars Backman, 2013-06-17 The concept of compensation in psychology refers to processes through which a gap or mismatch between current accessible skills and environmental demands is reduced or closed These gaps can be principally the result of losses such as those associated with aging or interpersonal role changes injuries such as those that may occur to the neurological or sensory systems organic or functional diseases such as the dementias or schizophrenia and congenital deficits such as those apparent in autism or some learning disabilities Whether the demand skill gaps can be bridged completely reduced only moderately or are impossible to close depends on a variety of factors In every case however the guiding notions of compensation are that some such deficits may be amendable the continuation of the effects of the gap may be avoidable and some functioning may be recoverable In this sense compensation is related to adaptation it is about overcoming deficits managing the effects of losses and promoting improvement in psychological functioning Compensation is a concept that has a long and rich history in numerous domains of psychological research and practice To date however few of the relevant research domains have benefitted explicitly or optimally from considering alternative perspectives on the concept of compensation Although researchers and practitioners in several areas of psychology have actively pursued programs with compensation as a central concept communication across disciplinary divides has been lacking Comparing and contrasting the uses and implications of the concept across neighboring and even not so adjacent areas of psychology can promote advances in both theoretical and practical pursuits The goal of this book is to carry inchoate integrative efforts to a new level of clarity To this end the editors have recruited major authors from selected principal areas of research and practice in psychological compensation The authors review the current state of compensation scholarship in their domains of specialization State of the art reviews of this rapidly expanding area of scholarship are therefore collected under one cover for the first time In this way a wide variety of readers who might otherwise rarely cross professional paths with one another can quickly learn about alternative preferences agendas and methods as well as novel research results interpretations and practical applications Designed to contain broad deep and current perspectives on compensation this volume continues the processes of explicating the concept of compensation linking and distinguishing compensation from neighboring concepts describing the variety of compensatory mechanisms operating in a wide range of phenomena and illustrating how compensatory mechanisms can be harnessed or trained to manage losses or deficits and to promote gains or at least maintenance of functioning

Peter Gzowski R.B. Fleming,2010-08-27 Born in 1934 Peter Gzowski covered most of the last half of the century as a journalist and interviewer

This biography the most comprehensive and definitive yet published is also a portrait of Canada during those decades beginning with Gzowski's days at the University of Toronto's The Varsity in the mid 1950s through his years as the youngest ever managing editor of Maclean's in the 1960s and his tremendous success on CBC's Morningside in the 1980s and 1990s and ending with his stint as a Globe and Mail columnist at the dawn of the 21st century and his death in January 2002. Gzowski saw eight Canadian Prime Ministers in office most of whom he interviewed and witnessed everything from the Quiet Revolution in Quebec to the growth of economic nationalism in Canada's West. From the rise of state medicine to the decline of the patriarchy Peter was there to comment to resist and to participate. Here was a man who was proud to call himself Canadian and who made millions of other Canadians realize that Canada was in what he claimed was a Canadian expression not a bad place to live.

The Geography of Manitoba John Welsted, John Everitt, Christoph Stadel, 1996-03-15 Manitoba is more than one of Canada's three prairie provinces. Encompassing 649 950 square kilometres its territory ranges from Canadian Shield to grassland parkland and subarctic tundra. Its physical geography has been shaped by ice age glaciers while its human geography reflects the influences of its various inhabitants from the First Nations who began arriving over 9 000 years ago to its most recent immigrants. This fascinating range of geographical elements has given Manitoba a distinct identity and makes it a unique area for study. Geography of Manitoba is the first comprehensive guide to all aspects of the human and physical geography of this unique province. Representing the work of 47 scholars and illustrated with over 200 maps diagrams and photographs it is divided into four main sections covering the major areas of the province's geography: Physical Background, People and Settlements, Resources and Industry, and Recreation. As well as studying historical developments the contributors to Geography of Manitoba analyse recent political and economic events in the province including the effect of federal and provincial elections and international trade agreements. They also comment on future prospects for the province considering areas as diverse as resource management and climatic trends.

Tales from the Georgia Tech Sideline Kim King, 2014-09-02 In this reissue of Tales from the Georgia Tech Sideline former quarterback Kim King shares stories from his unique half century involvement with Yellow Jackets football. As a child growing up in Atlanta King watched Coach Bobby Dodd's great Tech teams of the 1950s play in historic Grant Field. A highly recruited high school quarterback King went to Tech and became the star quarterback from 1965-67. The Young Left Hander as late Tech radio announcer Al Ciraldo called King led the Jackets to two bowl games and was Bobby Dodd's last quarterback before he retired after the 1966 season. King's involvement with Tech football did not end with his graduation. In 1974 he joined Ciraldo in the radio booth as Tech's color commentator. In the book he details Tech's struggles after Dodd's retirement, the colorful and turbulent Pepper Rodgers years, Bill Curry's painful first coaching steps back at his alma mater before restoring Tech to prominence in the mid 80s and the two awful seasons Bobby Ross endured before the historic 1990 breakthrough culminating in Georgia Tech's fourth national championship. Following Bill Lewis's disastrous tenure in the early 90s George

O Leary revived Tech football yet again before his controversial departure for Notre Dame led to Chan Gailey's arrival on The Flats. Kim King saw many of the Jackets bowl victories and nearly 50 years of Tech football before his death in 2004. He shares those memories along with his personal reminiscences of Tech players and coaches triumphs and travails in Tales from the Georgia Tech Sideline.
