Boles, 2004 This volume gathers personal recollections by fifteen eminent historians of the American South Coming from distinctive backgrounds traveling diverse career paths and practicing different kinds of history the contributors exemplify the field's richness on many levels As they reflect on why they joined the profession and chose their particular research specialties these historians write eloquently of family and upbringing teachers and mentors defining events and serendipitous opportunities The struggle for civil rights was the defining experience for several contributors Peter H Wood remembers how black fans of the St Louis Cardinals erupted in applause for the Dodgers Jackie Robinson I realized for the first time writes Wood that there must be something even bigger than hometown loyalties dividing Americans Gender equality is another frequent concern in the essays Anne Firor Scott tells of her advisor's ridicule when childbirth twice delayed Scott's dissertation With great effort I managed to write two chapters but Professor Handlin was moved to inquire whether I planned to have a baby every chapter Yet another prominent theme is the reconciliation of the professional and the personal as when Bill C Malone traces his scholarly interests back to the memories of growing up poor on an East Texas cotton farm and finding escape and diversion in the sounds of hillbilly music Always candid and often witty each essay is a road map through the intellectual terrain of southern history as practiced during the last half of the twentieth century

The Best Short Stories of 1919 Edward Joseph Harrington O'Brien, 1920 The Uncoiling Python Harold Scheub, 2010-08-10 The oral and written traditions of the Africans of South Africa have provided an understanding of their past and the way the past relates to the present These traditions continue to shape the past by the present and vice versa From the time colonial forces first came to the region in 1487 oral and written traditions have been a bulwark against what became 350 years of colonial rule characterized by the racist policies of apartheid The Uncoiling Python South African Storytellers and Resistance is the first in depth study of how Africans used oral traditions as a means of survival against European domination Africans resisted colonial rule from the beginning They participated in open insurrections and other subversive activities in order to withstand the daily humiliations of colonial rule Perhaps the most effective and least apparent expression of subversion was through indigenous storytelling and poetic traditions Harold Scheub has collected the stories and poetry of the Xhosa Zulu Swati and Ndebele peoples to present a fascinating analysis of how the apparently harmless tellers of tales and creators of poetry acted as front line soldiers
