My Neighbour over the Border Paul Doe,2021-09-09 How do towns and cities divided by the harsh reality of an international border manage to get on with each other when their closest neighbour lives just next door but in another country Are they thriving or surviving Utterly dependent on each other or with backs turned socially and economically We visit towns and cities that you may not have heard of or know little about Places like distant Blagoveshchensk and Heihe Narva and Ivangorod and Gorlitz and Zgorzelec But also the better known Nicosia Europe s only divided capital Detroit with its Canadian neighbour Windsor Geneva and its French suburb Annemasse and the cities of Sarajevo and Mostar divided not by international borders but ethnic divisions baked into everyday life This is a fascinating and well researched study of thirty six towns and cities from across the world that are separated by borders Paul Doe delves into the way in which these divisions came about and how the separated towns and cities manage to get along or not buffeted as they are by geopolitics ethnic differences and historical animosities
