Manufacturing Tales Gary Alan Fine,1992 The mouse in the Coke bottle the promiscuous cheerleader the exploding Pop Rocks candy the Kentucky Fried Rat If the ballad and the fairy tale were the archetypal folklore forms of an earlier age such contemporary legends constitute the preferred narrative genre of the late twentieth century In Manufacturing Tales award winning folklorist Gary Alan Fine presents a major new theory of the creation and diffusion of contemporary legends in modern society While ballad and fairy tale arose in folk communities and spread through trade and migration contemporary legends thrive in societies crosscut by varied communication channels and relatively open networks By looking at the social structural background the performance context the personality of the teller and the content of the text we gain insight into the formation dissemination and disappearance of these modern legends Fine identifies sex and money as key themes in contemporary legends reflecting the public's disguised attempts to deal with major contemporary preoccupations From the AIDS crisis to fears of food contamination in restaurants popular anxieties are reflected in folklore As dramatic moving comic and involving texts contemporary legends build relationships among acquaintances and strangers as depictions of the world that we face every day they provide perspective on potential challenges and as shared information they elaborate a consensual understanding of reality

Writing the Wrongs Elizabeth Faue,2018-05-31 Eva McDonald Valesh was one of the Progressive Era's foremost labor publicists Challenging the narrow confines placed on women Valesh became a successful investigative journalist organizer and public speaker for labor reform Valesh was a compatriot of the labor leaders of her day and the right hand man of Samuel Gompers president of the American Federation of Labor Events she covered during her colorful unconventional reporting career included the Populist revolt the Cuban crisis of the 1890s and the 1910 Shirtwaistmakers uprising She was described as bright even comet like by her admirers but her enemies saw her as a pest who took all the benefit that her sex controls when in argument with a man Elizabeth Faue examines the pivotal events that transformed this outspoken daughter of a working class Scots Irish family into a national political figure interweaving the study of one woman's fascinating life with insightful analysis of the changing character of American labor reform during the period from 1880 to 1920 In her journey through the worlds of labor journalism and politics Faue lays bare the underside of social reform and reveals how front line workers in labor's political culture reporters investigators and lecturers provoked and informed American society by writing about social wrongs Compelling insightful and at times humorous Writing the Wrongs is a window on the Progressive Era on social history and the new journalism and on women's lives and the meanings of class and gender

industry and intrigue featuring the savvy and tough entrepreneurs of movie entertainment this first ever history of cinema in the Twin Cities reveals the influence of Hollywood on the lives and imaginations of Minnesotans and that of Minnesotans on the film industry today Filled with photos of the dazzling marquees and great theaters of yesterday and today historian Dave Kenney's highly readable account offers rich histories of some of the grandest theaters ever constructed Featured are movie palaces like the Minnesota in downtown Minneapolis with its well synchronized phalanx of ushers and cavernous yet elegant interior and the Cooper in St Louis Park with its films projected larger than life in 70 mm Cinerama Yet behind many of these cinemas electrifying facades are the impresarios and business leaders who took the risks and made the fortunes like nationally known theater mogul and Hollywood producer Ted Mann who transformed Minnesota movie going in the fifties and sixties and porn king Ferris Alexander whose unconventional business activities resulted in the preservation of many now treasured historical monuments Then there are the people of the Twin Cities who have seen and tested some of the biggest movies of all time
