Simpson and the Donkey Anniversary Edition Peter Cochrane, 2014-01-01 The simple tale of Simpson and his donkey is the pre eminent legend of heroism It is the story of a humble water carrier a rescuer of wounded men a tale of compassion stoic persistence with a tragic end His tale is an integral part of the Anzac story Across time a simple tale can acquire a complicated history This is what happened to the man with the donkey and is the subject of this book Simpson's afterlife the legend Index to Short Stories Ina Ten Eyck Firkins, 1936 Stories Told for Revenue Only St. Paul Press Club (Saint Paul, Minn.), 1893 Modernist Short Fiction by Women Claire Drewery, 2016-04-15 Taking on the neglected issue of the short story's relationship to literary Modernism Claire Drewery examines works by Katherine Mansfield Dorothy Richardson May Sinclair and Virginia Woolf Drewery argues that the short story as a genre is preoccupied with transgressing boundaries and thus offers an ideal platform from which to examine the Modernist fascination with the liminal Embodying both liberation and restriction liminal spaces on the one hand enable challenges to traditional cultural and personal identities while on the other hand they entail the inevitable negative consequences of occupying the position of the outsider marginality psychosis and death Mansfield Richardson Sinclair and Woolf all exploit this paradox in their short fiction which typically explores literal and psychological borderline states that are resistant to rational analysis Thus their short stories offered these authors an opportunity to represent the borders of unconsciousness and to articulate meaning while also conveying a sense of that which is unsayable Through their concern with liminality Drewery shows these writers contribute significantly to the Modernist aesthetic that interrogates identity the construction of the self and the relationship between the individual and society *Wilson's Historical, Traditionary, and Imaginative Tales of the Borders, and of Scotland: with an illustrative glossary, by Captain Thomas Brown.
