many genres from diverse voices and from all regions of the state Told in settings ranging from the front porch to the festival stage these tales proclaim the great vitality and variety of Louisiana s oral narrative traditions Given special focus are Harold Talbert Lonnie Gray Bel Abbey Ben Guin and Enola Matthews whose wealth of imagination memory and artistry demonstrates the depth as well as the breadth of the storyteller s craft For tales told in Cajun and Creole French Koasati and Spanish the editors have supplied both the original language and English translation To the volume Maida Owens has contributed an overview of Louisiana s folk culture and a survey of folklife studies of various regions of the state Car Lindahl s introduction and notes discuss the various genres and styles of storytelling common in Louisiana and link them with the worldwide are of the folktale

Adour A.S. Hernandez,2020-12-08 Adour being the son of not only a nobleman but the son of the first knight of Baron Gossburg V left him with little options as to his destiny Since the day he was born it was determined that he would become not only a knight of the realm as was his father and his father before him However to his father s delight Adour was prophesied to become the greatest knight that ever lived by the local witch Adour had other ideas which was to become a dragon rider This left Adour with a dilemma as his father was determined that Adour became a knight To make matters worse Adour s father hated the dragon riders and would not have anything to do with them As fate would have it Adour s destiny would be turned upside down after his encounter with the witch Geldaron His world would be further impacted when he took a trip the capital city of Vestburgen in the Kingdom of Tertianland as that day just happened to be a very special day in the kingdom That day was the day of the bonding where the new dragon rider acolytes are chosen by the newly hatched baby dragons At least some of them might get chosen which is determined by the number of actual hatchlings as there are always more acolytes than hatchings The reason for this is to be sure there are enough acolytes for the hatchings
