Talk To Me Opening Up Your Silent Man:

We Have To Talk Samuel Shem, Janet Surrey, Stephen Bergman, 1999-04-23 We have to talk For many men these are the four worst words in the English language especially when they are uttered by a female partner But it doesn't have to be that way argue Samuel Shem and Janet Surrey in their pathbreaking and practical new book Male relational dread that all too familiar reaction set off by women's relational yearnings can be tamed and in its place can emerge true satisfaction for men and women To demonstrate how this is done Shem and Surrey take us behind the scenes of their popular workshops We hear couples speak intimately about anger guilt resentment shame and sex We watch them wrestle collectively with the gender divide in their relationships the deep disconnects or impasses that reflect the vastly different developmental paths men and women have traveled We see couples learn to bridge the poles of dread and yearning to emerge from isolation into mutuality We witness their moments of sadness humor and ultimately discovery Filled with moving stories of real people struggling with real problems We Have to Talk shatters the rules and offers dramatic proof that men and women are not from different planets after all It is certain to be seen as the relationship book for the new millennium

A Perverse Romance: a Tourist Dance to Art and Satirical Provocation Pru La Motte, 2019-06-17 A Perverse Romance is a satirical tale of artist Hephzibah Brown who is persuaded by Cedric the Imp of Perversity to follow him to the recently independent Ghana following with the temptation that they will compose a tourist book for him to write and for her to illustrate She does follow but knowing his unreliability she changes it to a book about tourists one a pragmatist and the other an idealist And more than this her tourists will be women The novel becomes an examination of real life being a form of transience How I use satire Satire is the uncomfortable life of being disturbed but draws to our notice the human capacity of doubling our subjective thinking This is a philosophical impact which philosopher Thomas Nagel brought to my attention in mind and cosmos materialism Subtracts from the physical world as its major object is everything mental consciousness meaning intention or purpose It is the absence known but ignored too hard Subjectivity becomes fictive but remains to challenge through satire

The Living Age ,1867 The Gay Man's Guide to Open and Monogamous Marriage Michael Dale Kimmel,2017-06-09 Legal gay marriage is still a relatively new phenomenon As gay men who are now able to get married we find ourselves in a bit of a quandary for many male couples sex is a lot more important for us than it is for heterosexuals Two married men often have a stronger desire for sex wanting more of it and with a wider variety of partners than married opposite sex couples How does this work within the structure of a monogamous marriage Is an open relationship a better structure for gay marriage Assuming that gay marriages will emulate heterosexual marriages is neither a valid nor a helpful assumption But as gay men where does that leave us There are currently no rule books for how a marriage between two men could or should work While there are lots of books about how to plan your gay wedding there are virtually none that address what to do after the honeymoon is over literally and figuratively This book fills that void It offers married gay couples and gay men considering marriage an easy to follow practical framework that they can use to help create adjust and structure their marriages Using helpful examples and first hand quotes throughout Openly gay psychotherapist Michael Dale Kimmel offers a roadmap for gay men who want to be married but have questions and concerns about monogamy and monotony

Littell's Living Age ,1867      Ungolden Silence Lydia E. Brew,2007-12-13 A few years ago two teenage girls were kidnapped and their names were given on the national news Luckily they were found alive It was determined that they had been sexually assaulted and their names were not given after that What is wrong with this picture We hear the name of every crime victim except the name of people that are sexually assaulted We are protecting their privacy as if they have done something wrong Rape is a crime just like murder stealing robbing a bank carjacking and any and every other crime that we have to deal with as a society Sometimes a rape victim is shown on television but her face is not shown because she is frightened that her rapist will come back to hurt her This is understandable However when the rapist is in jail and the victim is on television her face is still hidden Why Another question is why are rape victims reluctant to come forward and report that someone has just raped them Could the reason be that the rapist is the victims boss teacher colleague boyfriend a family member a casual acquaintance or maybe a stranger Ungolden Silence is an exploration of how rape is treated in the United States It is imperative to change the way that society looks and deals with this social taboo Ungolden Silence is a novel that will leave the reader with many questions It will also attempt to answer some of the questions that society asks but never seem to want to answer We must look at the history of how men have been allowed to treat women It is important not to just know the information it is important to act on it Ungolden Silence will explore the world of rape and expose the myths through articles that are based on facts The main questions that needs to be answered in why one human being would rape another human being These reasons are explored in the story When any crime takes place the families of the victims as well as the criminal are involved Ungolden Silence will illustrate that the criminal is a real person and rarely do they commit crimes just for the fun of it It is important to know that rape is a part of violence Through the characters of Ungolden Silence it is hoped that society will begin to find a way to eliminate the acceptance of violence which includes the act of rape It is imperative that society understands that rape does not stand on an island by itself Rape is a room in the house of violence When looking into the house of violence we cannot just go into the front door and head to the rape room We must look at other rooms One room we must look into is the room of abuse When we enter the room we see that there are different kinds of abuse They are sexual physical and mental Again the main question is why a man or a woman will rape another person While the answer is far too complex Ungolden Silence will attempt to give some possible explanation The answers are not simple or exact Each rape case is as unique as the persons involved both perpetrator and the victim Ungolden Silence looks at this social taboo in a unique way The Calloway Firm where the owners and employees are African Americans sends two women to Washington D C to begin a campaign to create awareness about the disabled Elaine Wilson who is disabled is in charge of the project Beatrice James is her partner and goes with her Their client Mrs Stevens is impressed with the professionalism that Beatrice and Elaine show as they share their ideas for the campaign to increase the awareness of the disabled Mrs Stevens is amazed to see that Elaine really is in charge of the project The story changes when Mr Thomas Paige a very influential African American in the city comes into the picture Mrs Stevens though an extremely rich and influential American woman of European descent is very excited to have Mr Paige on the project Beatrice is ex Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell,Robert S.
