The Force Of Art Cultural Memory In The Present:

The Force of Art Krzysztof Ziarek, 2004 Redefining art as a transformative forcework The Force of Art offers a new theory of the artwork in which art's force is explained as a contestation of power in its modern technological manifestations

Religion and Cultural Memory Jan Assmann, Rodney Livingstone, 2006 In ten brilliant essays Jan Assmann explores the connections between religion culture and memory Building on Maurice Halbwachs's idea that memory like language is a social phenomenon as well as an individual one he argues that memory has a cultural dimension too He develops a persuasive view of the life of the past in such surface phenomena as codes religious rites and festivals and canonical texts on the one hand and in the Freudian psychodrama of repressing and resurrecting the past on the other Whereas the current fad for oral history inevitably focuses on the actual memories of the last century or so Assmann presents a commanding view of culture extending over five thousand years He focuses on cultural memory from the Egyptians Babylonians and the Osage Indians down to recent controversies about memorializing the Holocaust in Germany and the role of memory in the current disputes between Israelis and Palestinians in the Middle East and between Protestants and Catholics in Northern Ireland

Performing Memory in Art and Popular Culture Liedeke Plate, Anneke Smelik, 2013 This volume pursues a new line of research in cultural memory studies by understanding memory as a performative act in art and popular culture The authors take their cue from the observation that art and popular culture enact memory and generate processes of memory They do memory and in this doing of memory new questions about the cultural dimensions of memory arise How do art objects and artistic practices perform the past in the present What is their relationship to the archive Does the past speak in the performed past or do we speak to it To what purpose do objects recall And for whom do they recollect Here authors combine a methodological focus on memory as performance with a theoretical focus on art and popular culture as practices of remembrance The essays in the book thus analyze what is at stake in the complex processes of remembering and forgetting of recollecting and disremembering of amnesia and anamnesis that make up cultural memory

Materializing Memory in Art and Popular Culture Laszlo Muntean, Liedeke Plate, Anneke Smelik, 2016-12-08 Memory matters It matters because memory brings the past into the present and opens it up to the future But it also matters literally because memory is mediated materially Materiality is the stuff of memory Meaningful objects that we love or hate function not only as aide mmoire but are integral to memory Drawing on previous scholarship on the interrelation of memory and materiality this book applies recent theories of new materialism to explore the material dimension of memory in art and popular culture The book's underlying premise is twofold on the one hand memory is performed mediated and stored through the material world that surrounds us on the other hand inanimate objects and things also have agency on their own which affects practices of memory as well as forgetting Chapters 1 4 and 5 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 3.0 license

Cultural Memory in Republican and Augustan Rome Martin T. Dinter, Charles Guérin, 2023-05-11 Explores how cultural memory theory intersects with the literature politics history and archaeology of Republican and Augustan Rome

Jordan, 2006 Structures of Memory turns to the landscape of contemporary Berlin particularly places marked by the presence of the Nazi regime in order to understand how some places of great cruelty or great heroism are forgotten by all but eyewitnesses while others become the site of public ceremonies museums or commemorative monuments
