The Future of Theology Miroslav Volf, Carmen Krieg, Thomas Kucharz, 1996

This is a print on demand book and is therefore non-returnable. Perhaps no other theologian of the second half of this century has shaped theology so profoundly as has Jürgen Moltmann. He appeared on the world theological scene with his Theology of Hope 1964 and took most of its capitals by storm. His subsequent works have kept him at the forefront of the modern theological enterprise, and the power of his vision and the originality of his method have inspired a host of new theologians. In terms of fecundity, Moltmann's opus remains unmatched among his generation of theologians. More than 130 dissertations written so far on his thought, most of them in the past decade, testify eloquently to its continued attractiveness. In honor of Moltmann's 70th birthday, twenty-six of the world's leading theologians, his friends, colleagues, interlocutors, and former students have contributed to this volume on the future of theology. Moltmann himself has always sought to be both contemporary and future-oriented; his theology can be viewed as an exercise not only from the perspective of God's future but also toward a new human future. Thus a book on the future of theology takes up an aspect of his theme and his concern. Yet this volume also makes a significant contribution to theology in its own right, seeking as it does to address the present crisis of theology. As Miroslav Volf writes in his introduction: On the threshold of the third millennium, the presumed queen of sciences has grown old and feeble, unable to see that what she thinks is her throne is just an ordinary chair, uncertain about what her territories are and confused about how to rule in the realms she thinks are hers seeking advice from a quarrelsome chorus of counselors each of whom thinks himself the king and ending up with a divided even schizophrenic mind The essays in this volume attempt to revitalize theology as it confronts a difficult future Despite the formidable obstacles that threaten the very survival of theology in the next century religious and cultural plurality the marginalization of theology in public discourse increasing abstraction in the practice of theology pressing issues of gender race poverty and ecology the seemingly archaic voice of theology in post Christian societies the contributors to this volume all believe in the future of theology as a vibrant discipline The Future of Theology is organized in three parts Challenges deals with the external or internal problems that theology is facing Perspectives offers proposals on how to meet the challenges Themes concentrates on various issues that need special attention today Together these essays succeed in setting the theological agenda for the future of theology and thereby serve as a fitting tribute to this volume's esteemed honoree Contributors Stanley Hauerwas Elisabeth Moltmann-Wendel John B Cobb Jr James H Cone D Lyle Dabney Ingolf U Dalferth Gustavo Guti rrez Douglas John Hall Ellen T Charry M Douglas Meeks Johann Baptist Metz Konrad Raiser Wolfhart Pannenberg Paul Ricoeur John Howard Yoder Dietrich Ritschl Dorothy S Lee Jon Sobrino Elsa Tamez Geoffrey Wainwright Rosemary Radford Ruether Miroslav Volf Michael Welker Nicholas Wolterstorff Catherine Keller Huns K ng Charting Future Courses ,1993 Rethinking the Future P. Jeanne Vickers,2024-11-01 Rethinking the Future is the story of a relationship between two highly original thinkers who achieved great distinction in their chosen fields and in their respective countries After a distinguished career in law civil administration and industrial management Geoffrey Vickers made an exceptional contribution to academic debate with regard to ethics epistemology and governance the art of maintaining stable relationships over time One of the most eminent scholars of political economics in the Western world and a gifted teacher Adolph Lowe inspired generations of economics students at the New School for Social Research in New York and has published a number of seminal books on the subject The friendship between the two was very close taking shape through a correspondence and occasional visits to one side or the other of the Atlantic It lasted more than forty years This volume reflects the extraordinarily wide ranging nature of the correspondence between Lowe and Vickers and the continuing discussion of what it means to be human at the end of the twentieth century The letters provide a personal commentary on some of the major events of this century including many that were highly controversial The book shows how these two scholars contributed to the development of the central ideas of the century They are particularly relevant to present concerns dealing as they do with economics and management social and political sciences governance and public policy Discussing major national and international problems from very different and sometimes opposite standpoints the two men are able through this extraordinary correspondence to formulate ideas of great wisdom and foresight with regard to the world that awaits us as the twenty first century appears on the horizon Economists political scientists and sociologists will find this correspondence stimulating and enlightening Borderland ,1896 The
