The Futurist Moment Avant Garde Avant Guerre And The Language Of Rupture:

The Futurist Moment Marjorie Perloff, 2003-12-03 This volume examines the flourishing of Futurist aesthetics in the European art and literature of the early twentieth century Futurism was an artistic and social movement that was largely an Italian phenomenon though there were parallel movements in Russia England and elsewhere The Futurists admired speed technology youth and violence the car the airplane and the industrial city all that represented the technological triumph of humanity over nature This work looks at the prose visual art poetry and the manifestos of Futurists from Russia to Italy The author reveals the Moment's impulses and operations tracing its echoes through the years to the work of postmodern figures like Roland Barthes This updated edition reexamines the Futurist Moment in the light of a new century in which Futurist aesthetics seem to have steadily more to say to the present

The Culture of Fragments Clara Orban, 2023-11-20 Works of art such as paintings with words on them or poems shaped as images communicate to the viewer by means of more than one medium Here is presented a particular group of hybrid art works from the early twentieth century to discover in what way words and images can function together to create meaning The four central artists considered in this study investigate word image forms in their work F T Marinetti invented parole in libert among other ideas to free language from syntactic connections Umberto Boccioni experimented with newspaper clippings on the canvas from 1912 1915 and these collages constitute an important exploration into word image forms Andr Breton's collection of poems Clair de terre 1923 contains several typographical variations for iconographic effect Ren Magritte explored the relationship between words and images juxtaposing signifiers to contradictory signifieds on the canvas A final chapter introduces media other than poetry and painting on which words and images appear Posters the theater and the relatively new medium of cinema foreground words and images constantly This volume will be of interest to scholars of twentieth century French or Italian literature or painting and to scholars of word and image studies

Deleuze and Futurism Helen Palmer, 2014-08-28 This book is an original exploration of Deleuze's dynamic philosophies of space time and language bringing Deleuze and futurism together for the first time Helen Palmer investigates both the potential for creative novelty and the pitfalls of formalism within both futurist and Deleuzian linguistic practices Through creative and rigorous analyses of Russian and Italian futurist manifestos the futurist aspects of Deleuze's language and thought are drawn out The genre of the futurist manifesto is a literary and linguistic model which can be applied to Deleuze's work not only at times when he writes explicitly in the style of a manifesto but also in his earlier writings such as Difference and Repetition 1968 and The Logic of Sense 1969 The way in which avant garde manifestos often attempt to perform and demand their aims simultaneously and the problems which arise due to this is an operation which can be perceived in Deleuze's writing With a particular focus on Russian zaum the book negotiates the philosophy behind futurist nonsense language and how Deleuze propounds analogous goals in The Logic of Sense This book critically engages with Deleuze's poetics ultimately suggesting that multiple linguistic models operate synecdochically within his philosophy The Diaries of Nikolay Punin Nikolay Punin, 2010-07-05 Nikolay Punin 1888-1953 was the most articulate Russian Soviet art critic of the 1920s He strongly advocated Constructivism an avant garde impulse that favored mechanomorphic abstraction and proclaimed a movement to bring art into the center of popular life In the United States he is perhaps best remembered for his love affair with Anna Akhmatova one of the great poets of the twentieth century This volume presents the first English translation of ten diary notebooks that Punin wrote between 1915 and 1936 as well as selections from his earlier 1904-1910 and later 1941-1946 diaries and some thirty notes and letters relating to his affair with Anna Akhmatova These materials offer a rare glimpse into the life of art and artists in Russia They also present vivid scenes from the 1905 Revolution World War I the 1917 Revolutions World War II and Stalinist oppression through the reflections of a talented man who unlike many of his generation lived to tell the tale Poetics in a New Key Marjorie Perloff, 2014-10-29 Marjorie Perloff writes in her preface to Poetics in a New Key that when she learned David Jonathan Y Bayot wanted to publish a collection of her interviews and essays she was at once honored and mystified But to Perloff's surprise and her readers' delight the resulting assembly not only presents an accessible and provocative introduction to Perloff's critical thought but also highlights the wide range of her interests and the energetic reassessments and new takes that have marked her academic career The fourteen interviews in Poetics in a New Key conducted by scholars poets and critics from the United States Denmark Norway France and Poland including Charles Bernstein H L ne Aji and Peter Nicholls cover a broad spectrum of topics in the study of poetry its nature as a literary genre its current state and its relationship to art politics language theory and technology Also featured in the collection are three pieces by Perloff herself an academic memoir an exploration of poetry pedagogy and an essay on twenty first century intellectuals But across all the interviews and essays Perloff's distinctive personality and approach to reading and talking resound making this new collection an inspiring resource for scholars both of poetry and writing The Life Cycle of Russian Things Matthew P. Romaniello, Alison K. Smith, Tricia Starks, 2021-09-09 The Life Cycle of Russian Things re-orientes commodity studies using interdisciplinary and comparative methods to foreground unique Russian and Soviet materials as varied as apothecary wares isinglass limestone and tanks It also transforms modernist and Western interpretations of the material by emphasizing the commonalities of the Russian experience Expert contributors from across the United States Canada Britain and Germany come together to situate Russian material culture studies at an interdisciplinary crossroads Drawing upon theory from anthropology history and literary and museum studies the volume presents a complex narrative not only in terms of material consumption but also in terms of production and the secondary life of inheritance preservation or even destruction In doing so the book reconceptualises material culture as a lived experience of sensory interaction The

Life Cycle of Russian Things sheds new light on economic history and consumption studies by reflecting the diversity of Russia's experiences over the last 400 years
