The Forsaken People Case Studies Of The Internally Displaced:

The Forsaken People Roberta Cohen, Francis M. Deng, 2010-12-01 The coerced displacement of people within the borders of their own countries by armed conflicts internal strife and systematic violations of human rights has become a pervasive feature of the post Cold War era The plight of the displaced poses a challenge that is not only humanitarian but a threat to the security and stability of countries regions and through a chain effect the international system This book contains case studies of ten countries that have suffered severe problems of internal displacement Burundi Rwanda Liberia and the Sudan in Africa the former Yugoslavia and the Caucasus in Europe Tajikistan and Sri Lanka in Asia and Colombia and Peru in the Americas The contributors are Thomas Greene Randolph C Kent Jennifer McLean Larry Minear Liliana Obreg n Amir Pasic Hiram A Ruiz Colin Scott H L Seneviratne Maria Stavropoulou and Thomas G Weiss Additionally the contributors and editors offer recommendations for further action Masses in Flight / Forsaken People Roberta Cohen, Francis M.

Deng, Special Advisor on the Prevention of Genocide Francis M Deng, 1999-05-31 Since the end of the Cold War increasing numbers of people have been forced to leave their homes as a result of armed conflict internal strife and systematic violations of human rights Whereas refugees crossing national borders benefit from an established system of international protection and assistance those who are displaced internally suffer from an absence of legal or institutional bases for their protection and assistance from the international community This book analyzes the causes and consequences of displacement including its devastating impact both within and beyond the borders of affected countries It sets forth strategies for preventing displacement a special legal framework tailored to the needs of the displaced more effective institutional arrangements at the national regional and international levels and increased capacities to address the protection human rights and reintegration and development needs of the displaced The International Protection of Internally Displaced Persons Catherine Phuong, 2005-01-27 Despite the fact that there are up to 25 million internally displaced persons around the world their plight is still little known Like refugees internally displaced persons have been forced to leave their homes because of war and human rights abuses but they have not left their country This has major consequences in terms of the protection available to them This 2005 book aims to offer a clear and easily accessible overview of this important humanitarian and human rights challenge In contrast with other books on the topic it provides an objective evaluation of UN efforts to protect the internally displaced It will be of interest to all those involved with the internally displaced as well as anyone seeking to gain an overall understanding of this complex issue Humanitarian Intervention Thomas G.

Weiss, 2013-04-16 A singular development of the post Cold War era is the use of military force to protect human beings From Rwanda to Kosovo Sierra Leone to East Timor and more recently Libya to C te d Ivoire soldiers have rescued some civilians in some of the world s most notorious war zones Could more be saved Drawing on over two decades of research Thomas G Weiss answers yes and provides a persuasive introduction to the theory and practice of humanitarian intervention in the modern world He examines political ethical legal strategic economic and operational dimensions and uses a wide range of cases to highlight key debates and controversies The updated and expanded second edition of this succinct and highly accessible survey is neither celebratory nor complacent The author locates the normative evolution of what is increasingly known as the responsibility to protect in the context of the global war on terror UN debates and such international actions as Libya The result is an engaging exploration of the current dilemmas and future challenges for robust international humanitarian action in the twenty first century

Security, Reconstruction, and Reconciliation Muna Ndulo, 2007-01-24 This key text brings together a team of leading contributors to address the complex issues of security reconciliation and reconstruction in post conflict societies Security Reconstruction and Reconciliation is organized into four main sections the social political and economic dimensions of conflict the impact of conflict on women and children reconstruction and past human rights violations disarmament demobilization reintegration post war reconstruction and the building of a capable state and the role of the international community in the peace process The chapters offer a detailed and succinct exposition of the challenges facing post conflict societies by articulating the vision of a new society With a foreword by Francis Deng the UN Secretary General s Special Representative on Internally Displaced Persons the authors discuss the issues in the context of possible solutions and lessons learnt in the field This new book is a valuable resource for researchers policy makers and students in the fields of conflict resolution security studies law and development

Protection of Civilians Haidi Willmot, Ralph Mamiya, Scott Sheeran, Marc Weller, 2016 The protection of civilians which has been at the forefront of international discourse during recent years is explored through harnessing perspective from international law and international relations Presenting the realities of diplomacy and mandate implementation in academic discourse

Living in Limbo Steven B. Holtzman, 2004-01-01 Annotation This title analyzes the multi faceted nature of impoverishment and vulnerability which emerges from long periods of conflict induced displacement It reviews the situation of displaced in the context of a wide range of measures of vulnerability including material well being employment shelter human and social capital and concludes that significant vulnerability remains even after many years of displacement

Masses in Flight Roberta Cohen, Francis M. Deng, 2012-01-27 Since the end of the Cold War increasing numbers of people have been forced to leave their homes as a result of armed conflict internal strife and systematic violations of human rights Whereas refugees crossing national borders benefit from an established system of international protection and assistance those who are displaced internally suffer from an absence of legal or institutional bases for their protection and assistance from the international community This book analyzes the causes and consequences of displacement including its devastating impact both within and beyond the borders of affected countries It sets forth strategies for preventing displacement a special legal framework tailored to the needs of the displaced more effective institutional arrangements at the national regional and international levels and increased capacities to address the protection human rights and reintegration and development needs of the displaced Sustainable Development in Crisis Conditions Phillip J. Cooper, Claudia María Vargas, 2008

Sustainable Development in Crisis Conditions takes a broad based and integrative approach to exploring nation building and reconstruction in the wake of environmentally destructive warfare The UNHCR and World Politics Gil Loescher, 2001-05-25

Over fifty years ago governments established the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees UNHCR to protect the world's refugees The UNHCR was created to be a human rights and advocacy organization But governments also created the agency to promote regional and international stability and to serve the interests of states Consequently the UNHCR has always trod a perilous path between its mandate to protect refugees and asylum seekers and the demands placed upon it by states to be a relevant actor in world politics This is the first independent history of the UNHCR Gil Loescher one of the world's leading experts on refugee affairs draws upon decades of personal experience and research to examine the origins and evolution of the UNHCR as well as to identify many of the major challenges facing the organization in the years ahead A key focus is to examine the extent to which the evolution of the UNHCR has been framed by the crucial events of international politics during the past half century and how in turn the actions of the eight past High Commissioners have helped shape the course of world history Each chapter tells the story of an individual High Commissioner and examines the unique contributions made to the development of the Office The history of the last fifty years shows how the UNHCR has initiated and capitalized on international political developments to progressively expand its scope and authority as an important actor in world politics The book argues that the UNHCR has overstretched itself in recent decades and has strayed from its central human rights protection role The protection of refugees remains a litmus test of the international community's commitment to defend human rights and to uphold liberal democratic values Loescher offers a series of bold policy recommendations aimed at making the agency a more effective and accountable advocate for the millions of refugees in the world today
