The Garden Across The Border Mercè Rodoreda's Fiction:

The Garden Across the Border Kathleen McNerney, Nancy Vosburg, 1994 And in concentrating on a single story La salamandra Elizabeth Rhodes brings together many of the constants Mercè Rodoreda M. Isidra Mencos, 2004 This annotated bibliography of one of the best known Catalan authors selects and comments on 198 critical narrative works including nine biographical studies It provides a detailed analysis of the critical perspectives which have been used to analyze Rodoreda's works referring the reader to the bibliographical entries which best illustrate certain theoretical approaches or themes Women's Narrative and Film in 20th Century Spain Kathleen Glenn, 2017-09-25 Women's

Narrative and Film in 20th Century Spain examines the development of the feminine cultural tradition in Spain and how this tradition reshaped and defined a Spanish national identity Each chapter focuses on representation of autobiography alienation and exile marginality race eroticism political activism and feminism within the ever changing nationalisms in different regions of Spain The book describes how concepts of gender and difference shaped the individual collective and national identities of Spanish women and significantly modified the meaning and representation of female sexuality

Female Exiles in Twentieth and Twenty-first Century Europe M. Stanley, G. Zinn, 2007-09-03 A number of historical events of the twentieth century gave rise to migration immigration and exile to and within the European continent This collection represents an effort to raise consciousness about the marginalization of exiled women artists writers political figures as well as members of ethnic and religious minorities Voices and Visions Kathleen McNerney, 1999-05 The volume gives an excellent overall view of Rodoreda's poetry in the original and in translation her short stories and novels A completely annotated cross indexed bibliography of the critical work on Rodoreda accompanied by an analysis of the current state of criticism on her work is included Catalan Women Writers and Artists Kathryn Everly, 2003 Paul Ilie's theories of internal exile as well as Michel Foucault and Julia Kristeva on the problems of subjectivity guide the readings of the visual and verbal texts BOOK JACKET Literary Labyrinths in Franco-Era Barcelona Colleen P. Culleton, 2016-07-22 Bringing together works by Salvador Espriu Juan Goytisolo Mercè Rodoreda Esther Tusquets and Juan Marsa that portray memory as a disorienting narrative enterprise Colleen Culleton argues that the source of this disorientation is the material reality of life in Barcelona in the immediate post Civil War years Barcelona was the object of harsh persecution in the first years of the Franco regime that included the erasure of marks of Catalan identity and cultural history from the urban landscape and made Barcelona a moving target for memory The literature and film she examines show characters struggling to produce narratives of the remembered past that immediately conflict with the dominant version of Spain's historical narrative formulated to legitimize the Civil War Culleton suggests the trope of the laberinto used as an image or device in all five of the works she considers and translated into English as both maze and labyrinth opens up a space that enables readers to take vulnerability to outside interference into account as an inseparable part of remembrance While the narratives all have maze like qualities involving a high level of reader participation and choice the exigencies of the labyrinth with its unicursal demands for patience perseverance and faith always prevail Thus do the Francoist narrative and social structure in the end resurface and reassert themselves over the narrating character s perspective Reflection in Sequence Sandra J. Schumm,1999-07 The codes of conduct imposed on females by Spain s dictator Francisco Franco after the Spanish Civil War 1936 39 created a stifling environment for women until his death in 1975 Beginning with Carmen Laforet s 1944 Nadal Prize winning novel Nada novels by women many of which explore female identity began to proliferate in Spain The works examined in this study Nada Primera memoria 1960 by Ana Maria Matute La placa del Diamant 1962 by Merce Rodoreda Julia 1969 by Ana Maria Moix El cuarto de atras 1978 by Carmen Martin Gaité El amor es un juego solitario 1979 by Esther Tusquets and Questio d amor propi 1987 by Carme Riera feature female protagonists struggling for self realization and by extension for change in a restrictive Spanish society Schumm s analysis of the seven novels demonstrates how examination of metaphoric tropes and mirror images provides insight into the protagonists development Under Construction Elizabeth A. Scarlett,1994 Scarlett reveals significant correlations between gender and figurations of the female and male body and traces a history of the mind body connection in Spanish novels from the late nineteenth century to the present Gender, Class, and Nation Christine Arkinstall,2004 Little attention has been paid to Merce Rodoreda 1908 1983 as a modernist writer This study addresses the relationship of her production with Catalan Spanish and European modernism Foregrounded is Rodoreda s negotiation of the overlapping subjects of gender class modes of representation and national identities In the first three chapters her pre Civil War novels Soc una dona honrada Un dia de la vida d un home and Del que hom no pot fugir are read against key Catalan texts particularly Eugeni d Ors to emphasize debates surrounding modernist aesthetics and models of Catalan national identity The modernist preoccupation with high versus low literature is developed in Aloma while El carrer de les Camelies reconfigures the flaneur vis a vis the female writer s positioning in the modernist enterprise The modernist debt to realism and the revindication of early Catalan modernism in the 1970s are examined in Mirall trencat Christine Arkinstall is a Senior Lecturer in Spanish at The University of Auckland
