Sista Talk

Rochelle Brock, 2005 Sista Talk The Personal and the Pedagogical is an inquiry into the questions of how Black women define their existence in a society which devalues dehumanizes and silences their beliefs Placing herself inside of the research Rochelle Brock invites the reader on a journey of self exploration as she and seven of her Black female students investigate their collective journey toward self awareness in the attempt to liberate their minds and souls from ideological domination

Throughout Sista Talk attempts to understand the ways in which this self exploration informs her pedagogy Combining Black feminist and Afrocentric Theory with critical pedagogy this book frames the parameters for an Afrowomanist pedagogy of wholeness for teaching Black students

Constructing Black Selves Lisa Diane McGill,2005-11-01 In 1965 the Hart Cellar Immigration Reform Act ushered in a huge wave of immigrants from across the Caribbean Jamaicans Cubans Haitians and Dominicans among others How have these immigrants and their children negotiated languages of race and ethnicity in American social and cultural politics As black immigrants to which America do they assimilate Constructing Black Selves explores the cultural production of second generation Caribbean immigrants in the United States after World War II as a prism for understanding the formation of Caribbean American identity Lisa D McGill pays particular attention to music literature and film centering her study around the figures of singer actor Harry Belafonte writers Paule Marshall Audre Lorde and Piri Thomas and meringue hip hop group Proyecto Uno Illuminating the ways in which Caribbean identity has been transformed by mass migration to urban landscapes as well as the dynamic and sometimes conflicted relationship between Caribbean American and African American cultural politics Constructing Black Selves is an important contribution to studies of twentieth century U S immigration African American and Afro Caribbean history and literature and theories of ethnicity and race
