Beckett and Nothing Daniela Caselli,2020-03-09 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative

Commons BY NC ND open access license Beckett and nothing invites its readership to understand the complex ways in which the Beckett canon both suggests and resists turning nothing into something by looking at specific sometimes almost invisible ways in which little nothings pervade the Beckett canon The volume has two main functions on the one hand it looks at nothing not only as a content but also a set of rhetorical strategies to reconsider afresh classic Beckett problems such as Irishness silence value marginality politics and the relationships between modernism and postmodernism and absence and presence On the other it focuses on nothing in order to assess how the Beckett oeuvre can help us rethink contemporary preoccupations with materialism neurology sculpture music and television The volume is a scholarly intervention in the fields of Beckett studies which offers its chapters as case studies to use in the classroom It will prove of interest to advanced students and scholars in English French Comparative Literature Drama Visual Studies Philosophy Music Cinema and TV studies

In Capra's Shadow Ian Scott, 2014-10-17 Because screenwriter Robert Riskin spent most of his career collaborating with legendary Hollywood director Frank Capra Riskin's own unique contributions to film have been largely overshadowed With five Academy Award nominations to his credit for the monumental films Lady for a Day Mr Deeds Goes to Town You Can't Take It with You Here Comes the Groom and It Happened One Night for which he won the Oscar Riskin is often imitated but rarely equaled In Capra's Shadow The Life and Career of Screenwriter Robert Riskin is the first detailed critical examination of the Hollywood pioneer's life and work In addition to being one of the great screenwriters of the classic Hollywood era Riskin was also a producer and director founding his own film company and playing a crucial role in the foundation of the Screen Writers Guild During World War II Riskin was one of the major forces behind propaganda filmmaking He worked in the Office of War Information and oversaw the distribution and later production of films and documentaries in foreign theaters He was interested in showing the rest of the world more than just an idealized version of America he looked for films that emphasized the spiritual and cultural vibrancy within the U S making charity faith and generosity of spirit his propaganda tools His efforts also laid the groundwork for a system of distribution channels that would result in the dominance of American cinema in Europe in the postwar years Riskin's postwar work included his production of the 1947 film Magic Town the tale of a marketing executive who discovers the perfect American small town and uses it for polling What Riskin created onscreen is not simply a community stuck in an antiquarian past rather the town of Grandview observes its own traditions while at the same time confronting the possibilities of the modern world and the challenges of postwar America Author Ian Scott provides a unique perspective on Riskin and the ways in which his brilliant pithy style was realized in Capra's enduring films Riskin's impact on cinema extended far beyond these films as he helped spread Hollywood cinema abroad and articulated his vision of a changing America
