Post-Jungian Criticism James S. Baumlín, Tita French Baumlín, George H. Jensen, 2004-02-01 This groundbreaking collection brings the range and diversity of post Jungian thought into the realm of contemporary literary and cultural criticism These essays explore expand critique and apply post Jungian critical theory as they revisit and reread Jung s own writings from numerous perspectives No longer treated as a source of clear unequivocal authoritative pronouncement Jung s writings are themselves subjected to critical deconstructive readings and several of the essays confront head on Jung s evident racism antifeminism anti Semitism and political conservatism While not downplaying such charges the contributors outline an alternative post Jungian theory responsive to contemporary feminist postcolonial and poststructural concerns The result is not just a critical reinterpretation but more important a regeneration of Jungian thought The Cumulative Book Index ,1959 Books in Print ,1982 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R. complexes were expressed for Kirsch in physical symptoms and emotional dilemmas and they led him into clinical boundary violations which were costly to his analysands his family and himself The text of these historical documents is translated with great attention to style and accuracy and generous editorial scaffolding gives glimpses into the writers world Four appendices are included two essays by Kirsch a series of letters between Hilde Kirsch and Jung and a brief incisive essay on the Medical Society for Psychotherapy This revised edition includes primary material that was unavailable when the book was first published as well as updated footnotes and minor corrections to the translated letters
