Film Reboots Herbert Daniel Herbert, 2020-08-18 Bringing together the latest developments in the study of serial formatting practices remakes sequels series Film Reboots is the first edited collection to specifically focus on the new millennial phenomenon of rebooting Through a set of vibrant case studies this collection investigates rebooting as a practice that seeks to remake an entire film series or franchise with ambitions that are at once respectful and revisionary Examining such notable examples as Batman Ghostbusters and Star Trek among others this collection contends with some of the most important features of contemporary film and media culture today Claude Monet Nathalia Brodskaya, 2011-07-01 For Claude Monet the designation impressionist always remained a source of pride In spite of all the things critics have written about his work Monet continued to be a true impressionist to the end of his very long life He was so by deep conviction and for his Impressionism he may have sacrificed many other opportunities that his enormous talent held out to him Monet did not paint classical compositions with figures and he did not become a portraitist although his professional training included those skills He chose a single genre for himself landscape painting and in that he achieved a degree of perfection none of his contemporaries managed to attain Yet the little boy began by drawing caricatures Boudin advised Monet to stop doing caricatures and to take up landscapes instead The sea the sky animals people and trees are beautiful in the exact state in which nature created them surrounded by air and light Indeed it was Boudin who passed on to Monet his conviction of the importance of working in the open air which Monet would in turn transmit to his impressionist friends Monet did not want to enrol at the Ecole des Beaux Arts He chose to attend a private school L Acad mie Suisse established by an ex model on the Quai d Orf vres near the Pont Saint Michel One could draw and paint from a live model there for a modest fee This was where Monet met the future impressionist Camille Pissarro Later in Gleyre s studio Monet met Auguste Renoir Alfred Sisley and Fr d ric Bazille Monet considered it very important that Boudin be introduced to his new friends He also told his friends of another painter he had found in Normandy This was the remarkable Dutchman Jongkind His landscapes were saturated with colour and their sincerity at times even their na vet was combined with subtle observation of the Normandy shore s variable nature At this time Monet s landscapes were not yet characterized by great richness of colour Rather they recalled the tonalities of paintings by the Barbizon artists and Boudin s seascapes He composed a range of colour based on yellow brown or blue grey At the Third Impressionist Exhibition in 1877 Monet presented a series of paintings for the first time seven views of the Saint Lazare train station He selected them from among twelve he had painted at the station This motif in Monet s work is in line not only with Manet s Chemin de fer The Railway and with his own landscapes featuring trains and stations at Argenteuil but also with a trend that surfaced after the railways first began to appear In 1883 Monet had bought a house in the village of Giverny near the little town of Vernon At Giverny series painting became one of his chief working procedures Meadows became his permanent workplace When a journalist who had come from V theuil to interview Monet

asked him where his studio was the painter answered My studio I ve never had a studio and I can t see why one would lock oneself up in a room To draw yes to paint no Then broadly gesturing towards the Seine the hills and the silhouette of the little town he declared There s my real studio Monet began to go to London in the last decade of the nineteenth century He began all his London paintings working directly from nature but completed many of them afterwards at Giverny The series formed an indivisible whole and the painter had to work on all his canvases at one time A friend of Monet s the writer Octave Mirbeau wrote that he had accomplished a miracle With the help of colours he had succeeded in recreating on the canvas something almost impossible to capture he was reproducing sunlight enriching it with an infinite number of reflections Alone among the impressionists Claude Monet took an almost scientific study of the possibilities of colour to its limits it is unlikely that one could have gone any further in that direction

Brenton Plays: 2 Howard Brenton, 2013-12-04 Howard Brenton is one of Britain s best known and most controversial dramatists The Romans in Britain was the play that brought calls to bring back censorship when it was first staged at the National in 1980 It conjures up an era that is culturally as well as historically remote which is a notoriously difficult task but Mr Brenton achieves it with great skill and effect a very good play indeed In The Thirteenth Night He sets the characters of Shakespeare to find the elements in the British character which could transform an Englishman into a Stalin and closes in on his creation with an overall wit to match his horror The Times The Genius is teeming with memorable stage pictures and bristling with Brenton s very best writing flinty impassioned explosive Financial Times In Bloody Poetry Brenton is doing something markedly ambitious in this phantasmagoric play He is celebrating the idea of the committed artist who seeks to stir and provoke sullen defeated bourgeois England At the same time with clear eyed honesty he shows how difficult it is to upset the moral order The Guardian Greenland is on the one hand a cry of disillusionment with established political forms on the other it is full of typically lively Brentonesque satire and lampoons Brenton s message is a welcome antidote to the madness in which we all now seem to be living and a sharp blast against patriarchy as well as other attendant woes City Limits

Wassily Kandinsky, 1866-1944 Hajo Düchting, Wassily Kandinsky, 2000 The founder of abstract art The Russian painter Wassily Kandinsky 1866 1944 who later lived in Germany and France is one of the pioneers of twentieth century art Nowadays he is regarded as the founder of abstract art and is moreover the chief theoretician of this type of painting Together with Franz Marc and others he founded the group of artists known as the Blaue Reiter in Munich His art then freed itself more and more from the object eventually culminating in the First Abstract Watercolour of 1910 In his theoretical writings Kandinsky repeatedly sought the proximity of music and just as in music where the individual notes constitute the medium whose effect stems from harmony and euphony Kandinsky was aiming for a pure concord of colour through the interplay of various shades Gauguin had demanded that everything must be sacrificed to pure colours Kandinsky was the first to realise this and thus to influence a whole range of artists About the Series Each book in TASCHEN s Basic Art series features a detailed chronological summary of the life and oeuvre of the artist covering his or her cultural and historical importance a concise biography approximately 100 illustrations with explanatory captions
