Unhomed Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2024-04-23 In this rich cultural history Pamela Robertson Wojcik examines America's ambivalent and shifting attitude toward homelessness. She considers film cycles from five distinct historical moments that show characters who are unhomed and placeless mobile rather than fixed characters who fail resist or opt out of the mandate for a home of one's own. From the tramp films of the silent era to the 2021 Oscar-winning Nomadland Wojcik reveals a tension in the American imaginary between viewing homelessness as deviant and threatening or emblematic of freedom and independence. Blending social history with insights drawn from a complex array of films both canonical and fringe Wojcik effectively unhomes dominant narratives that cast aspirations for success and social mobility as the focus of American cinema reminding us that genres of precarity have been central to American cinema and the American story all along.

Necrogeopolitics Caroline Alphin, François Debrix, 2019-10-08 Necrogeopolitics: On Death and Death Making in International Relations brings together a diverse array of critical IR scholars, political theorists, critical security studies researchers, and critical geographers to provide a series of interventions on the topic of death and death making in global politics. Contrary to most existing scholarship, this volume does not place the emphasis on traditional sources or large-scale configurations of power force leading to death in IR. Instead, it details, theorizes, and challenges more mundane, perhaps banal, and often ordinary modalities of violence perpetrated against human lives and bodies, and often contributing to horrific instances of death and destruction. Concepts such as slow death, soft killing, superfluous bodies, or extra-ordinary destruction, disappearance, are brought to the fore by prominent voices in these fields alongside more junior creative thinkers to rethink the politics of life and death in the global polity away from dominant IR or political theory paradigms about power force and violence. The volume features chapters that offer thought-provoking reconsiderations of key concepts, theories, and practices about death and death making, along with other chapters that seek to challenge some of these concepts, theories, or practices in settings that include the Palestinian territories, Brazilian cities, displaced population flows from the Middle East, sites of immigration, policing in North America, and spaces of welfare politics in Scandinavian states.

Slow Death: James Fielder, 2011-10-24 Never Trust a Chained Captive That was one of the rules David Parker Ray posted on the isolated property where he and his girlfriend Cynthia Hendy lived near New Mexico's Elephant Butte Lake. They called their windowless trailer The Toybox. Over the years they lured countless young women into its chamber of unspeakable pain and horror and filmed every moment. A Satanist Ray was the center of a web of sadism, sex slavery, and murder. Authorities suspect he murdered more than 60 women. In October 2011 a flood of tips led to a renewed search for the remains of more possible victims. This updated edition reveals all the details plus the inside story on the controversial movie based on these unforgettable events. An eye-opening journey into the world of criminal sexual sadism. Jim Yontz, Deputy District Attorney, Albuquerque, New Mexico. 16 pages of haunting photos. Darkly fascinating, a shocker from beginning to end. Gregg Olsen, New York Times bestselling author Deep Change Robert E. Quinn,2010-08-20 Don't let your company kill you Open this book at your own risk It contains ideas that may lead to a profound self awakening An introspective journey for those in the trenches of today's modern organizations Deep Change is a survival manual for finding our own internal leadership power By helping us learn new ways of thinking and behaving it shows how we can transform ourselves from victims to powerful agents of change And for anyone who yearns to be an internally driven leader to motivate the people around them and return to a satisfying work life Deep Change holds the key Losses in Later Life, Second Edition R.
