Container and Small-Space Gardening for the South Barbara W. Ellis, 2024-03-05 Vast flower beds and large summer vegetable gardens are many southern gardeners pride and joy But gardening on a large scale isn't and doesn't need to be for everyone. In an era when many people would like to grow plants but are challenged by time, space, and lack of other resources, this concise, easy-to-use guide introduces southern gardeners to the art, craft, and science of growing plants in containers and in small spaces. Through friendly, engaging text and beautiful inspiring photographs, Barbara Ellis demonstrates how to create container and small space gardens that can withstand southern heat and humidity while still looking gorgeous all season long. Written for gardeners of all ages and experience levels, this book will inspire southerners to add containers brimming with flowers, herbs, vegetables, or a mix of all things green to every yard, garden, and terrace. Features plants that everyone can grow throughout the southeast with suggestions for overwintering tender plants indoors or replacing them annually. Covers key plant care basics including options on container selection, potting mediums, seasonal care, pest and disease control, and more. Identifies plants that support butterflies, hummingbirds, and pollinators. Offers comprehensive lists to help readers select the best plant options for their sites and objectives. Gives advice for readers on tight budgets and on how to create attractive containers from found materials.

Tiny Space Gardening Amy Pennington, 2022-03-01 Forget the 100-mile eat local diet, try the 300-square-foot diet: grow squash on the windowsill, flowers in the planter box, or corn in a parking strip. Apartment Gardening details how to start a garden in the heart of the city. From building a window box to planting seeds in jars on the counter, every space is plantable, and this book reveals that the DIY future is now by providing hands-on, accessible advice. Amy Pennington's friendly voice, paired with Kate Bingham Burt's crafty illustrations, make greener living an accessible reality, even if readers have only a few hundred square feet and two windowsills. Save money by planting the same things available at the grocery store and create an eccentric garden right in the heart of any living space.
