Smokeless Tobacco In The Western World 1550 195:

Smokeless Tobacco in the Western World Jan Rogozinski, 1990-10-19 This book provides the first comprehensive history of smokeless tobacco consumption from 1550 through the middle of the 20th century in Europe and North America Focusing throughout on the individual consumer of tobacco author Jan Rogonzinski presents and analyzes consumption data and summarizes the economic and other factors that have affected consumer choices Of particular significance is a chapter on the governmental regulation of the marketing of tobacco that indicates an economic linkage between the new and the old worlds in the use of state granted monopolies to market tobacco in Europe The only study to make use of existing primary sources on tobacco consumption marketing and regulation this volume is both a major contribution to the historical literature and an objective and readable account of consumer attitudes toward a substance whose impact on society continues to stir frequent and heated debate Following an introductory chapter that provides a broad historical overview of smokeless tobacco consumption Rogonzinski presents a brief nontechnical description of the tobacco plant and its many varieties He then explains the manufacturing processes that have been associated with each type of tobacco use and traces the early history of these practices through an examination of the literary evidence The chapter on governmental policies toward tobacco cultivation and marketing shows that from the very beginning governments have tried to control or influence the production manufacture pricing and consumption of tobacco products policies that have never been effective The next group of chapters analyze the evolution of consumer tobacco preferences by nation and region and includes a separate chapter on smokeless tobacco in the Middle East Africa and Asia A glossary bibliography and index complete the volume

Tobacco Use and Ethnicity Peter Myers, 2018-10-24 Learn how ethnic factors affect tobacco use The addiction to smoking is remarkably resistant to intervention bringing with it a multitude of health issues among users that can at times co occur with psychiatric disorders Ethnicity is increasingly recognized as often playing an important role in the prevalence of tobacco use Tobacco Use and Ethnicity explores the various factors that impact tobacco use among ethnic groups and provides practical culturally competent approaches to treatment Chapters consider multiple variables that lead to use among certain groups such as Asian American and Pacific Island youth American Indian and Alaskan Native youth and low income African Americans Tobacco Use and Ethnicity is a unique source that comprehensively reveals the intersection between nicotine and culture constructing culturally informed and culturally competent approaches to tobacco prevention and cessation treatment This volume is based on first hand participant observation and addresses risk and protective factors in a wide variety of populations served by public health workers and educators The book is extensively referenced and includes figures and tables to clearly present research Topics discussed in Tobacco Use and Ethnicity include target marketing of a tobacco product to African American youth how ethnicity and youth culture impact potential smokers the role of parental relationships the impact of peer and parental smoking status employment gender and income in British Columbia the risk factor of acculturative stress on Asian American and Pacific Island youth protective factors of American Indian and Alaskan Native youth common factors associated between poverty and African American tobacco use and more Tobacco Use and Ethnicity is an invaluable resource for public health professionals addictions counselors public health educators and students

Smoking, Culture and Economy in The Middle East Relli Shechter, 2006-04-28 In this original and thought provoking book Relli Shechter examines the emergence of modern markets in the complex social environment of the Middle East Focusing on the tobacco market in Egypt he looks at how markets interact with the society politics and culture of the region The history of Egypt s smoking habits from the water pipe to the Marlboro closely mirrors wider socio economic developments in the country Shechter begins his story by looking at the entrepreneurial Ottoman elite who produced luxury cigarettes for export worldwide He then looks at the role of tobacco products in forming class consciousness in the domestic market based on the idea that you are what you smoke Finally he looks at the politics of smoking in the context of contemporary economic globalisation Shechter engages energetically with cutting edge social and economic theories in telling the story of Egypt s tobacco markets The result is a fascinating book which contains a wealth of newly uncovered material Smoking Culture and Economy in the Middle East will stimulate and inform anyone interested in political economy social change and the Middle East region Tobacco Abstracts ,1991 New Technical Books New York Public Library,1991 America, History and Life ,1993 The North Carolina Historical Review ,1992 Bibliographic Index ,1991 The Cumulative Book Index ,1991 A world list of books in the English language Polonica zagraniczne ,1990 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1991 MHJ ,1992 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1991 Bibliographie Internationale Des Recensions de la Litt Ératue Savante ,1992 The Connoisseur ,1952 Tobacco ,1924
