My Alexandria Mark Doty, 1993 A book about mortality the mortal weight of AIDS in particular The House of Song David Wagoner, 2002 As a recipient of Poetry's Levinson Prize and the Ruth Lilly Prize and a nominee for the American Book Award and National Book Award David Wagoner is one of this country's most celebrated poets In The House of Song he offers a hundred new poems in six parts At turns elegiac comic and nostalgic these poems venture to the seemingly infinitesimal points where people legends and culture collide with nature memory and action With characteristic wit and brevity Wagoner chronicles the material invasions of the natural world reconsidering Thoreau amid ruminations on voyeurs and destroyers slug watchers and moth collectors The House of Song asserts Wagoner's place among the finest of American poets past and present Arts of a Cold Sun G. E. Murray, 2010-10-01 In these poems G E Murray blends the colors of the soul with those of the world it brushes up against exploring the ways in which art both as possession and possessor informs perception Viewing his subjects sometimes from airplane altitude sometimes from the intimacy of a shared restaurant table Murray crafts true stories about color narratives of dislocation and belonging that invite readers to question their own relationship to art Included in this volume is a long sequential poem titled The Seconds which Murray composed across the second days of thirteen months The rhythms of this diary as poem seize the tensions of shifting times and locales capturing the essences of moments that are at once chosen and arbitrary Codes toward an Incidental City the sequence that closes the book is a confederacy of forty poems that delve into the concrete familiarities and mythologies of urban landscapes illuminating the ecstasies of city life Filò Per Il Casanova Di Fellini Andrea Zanzotto, 1997 The main body of this volume is a unique film poem that grew out of Zanzotto's collaboration with Federico Fellini on the film Casanova The poem's beauty is enhanced by its presentation in the original Veneto dialect along with contemporary Italian and English With reference to Finnegans Wake and utilizing Fellini inspired myth the trilingual play of the poetry is rich in layers rich in meanings Including drawings by Fellini and illustrations by Murer this volume also contains poems dedicated to Montzale Pasolini and Charlie Chaplin and the first English translation of Zanzotto's poem on the tragedy of Bosnia all together in an unusual and beautiful format Signature Works , 1994 The Cambridge Companion to American Poetry since 1945 Jennifer Ashton, 2013-02-08 The extent to which American poetry reinvented itself after World War II is a testament to the changing social political and economic landscape of twentieth century American life Registering an important shift in the way scholars contextualize modern and contemporary American literature this Companion explores how American poetry has documented and at times helped propel the literary and cultural revolutions of the past sixty five years This Companion sheds new light on the Beat Black Arts and other movements while examining institutions that govern poetic practice in the United States today The text also introduces seminal figures like Sylvia Plath John Ashbery and Gwendolyn Brooks while situating them alongside phenomena such as the academic poet and popular forms such as spoken word and rap revealing the breadth of their shared

The Hollow Log Lounge R. T. Smith,2010-10-01 This is no fairy tale It's all fantastic and bizarre and true It's my life a raspy song that sounds better if you sing along The men and women who live and work near Opelika Alabama gather at the Hollow Log Lounge There under the watchful eye of the stuffed fox behind the bar they unload their gripes and worries tell their stories argue joke commune complain and confess In this collection of poems R T Smith paints a vividly imagined portrait of the community in this small town bar capturing the chorus of the patrons voices echoing off the knotted wood paneled walls Smith's stand in Sam Buckhannon scribbles stories heard and overheard as tongues loosened by liquor spin out monologues in which southern idiom and vernacular seem perfectly at home within the constraints of measured verse

Walt Whitman Bathing David Wagoner, 1996 When David Wagoner's last collection Through the Forest New and Selected Poems was published Harold Bloom noted that Wagoner's study of American nostalgias is as eloquent and moving as that of James Wright and like Wright's poetry carries on some of the deepest currents in American verse The same could be said of Walt Whitman Bathing in which Wagoner's poems range from the lyric to the satiric the elegiac to the transcendental the autobiographical to the visionary Other comments on Wagoner's earlier works Wagoner has the visual acuity of his loved hawks and a lifelong absorption with living and growing things A lovely wit and a lively intelligence inform these poems Maxine Kumin When Wagoner looks at something he brings it to vivid and immediate life through an extraordinary power with a simple name love He is as formally various as Thomas Hardy as playful as Dickinson as wry as Frost Dave Smith A sharp eyed even gutsy nature poet the deftest and tenderest of love poets Wagoner is a verbal magician capable of surprising sometimes crazy tours de force X J Kennedy

Some Jazz a While Miller Williams, 1998 Here one of our best loved poets gathers his most representative work from twelve collections and adds some new pieces as well An American original Miller Williams involves the reader's emotions and imagination with an effective illusion of plain talk continually rediscovering what is vital and musical in the language we speak and imagine by

Bruised Paradise Kevin Stein, 1996 Stein's poems reveal the constancy of the American quest for work family and dignity even as they evoke the bruised but still redemptive fruit of human compassion

The Ways We Touch Miller Williams, 1997 The poems in The Ways We Touch Miller Williams's twelfth volume of poetry range from reminiscences of old love to meditations on the relationship between God and human beings to reflections on English poetry and children's stories Throughout Williams's poems use small scenes from daily life drawing from them ruminations about life itself They may be nostalgic or challenging humorous or full of moral fortitude always Williams speaks with the kind of insight that rises from wisdom and experience

Pursuit of a Wound Sydney Lea, 2000 Co winner of the prestigious Poets Prize for his collection To the Bone Sydney Lea is known for his mastery of the narrative style and his clear and unwavering vision of the natural world and humanity's place in it His latest work Pursuit of a Wound is marked by this acuity and by his uncanny ear for language as well as his willingness to speak for the unlucky and the dispossessed Delving in equal measure into the flinty northern New England landscape and the exiled souls of ordinary people Pursuit of a Wound moves beyond Lea's previous work to explore new poetic strategies including some that approach prose poetry Combining a free ranging sensibility akin to Whitman's with a keen attention to verse's formal possibilities this collection of twenty eight new poems evokes a beautiful and threatened place and ratifies Lea's status as heir apparent to Robert Frost

In the Black Window Michael Van Walleghen, 2004-05-12 The title of Michael Van Walleghen's new collection evokes thematic preoccupations that have shadowed him throughout his long career Appearing as a phrase in the poems themselves In the Black Window more generally points to Van Walleghe's enduring interest in the intersection between inner and outer worlds of experience those liminal moments in other worlds where we become aware of ourselves We live at once in a strictly personal material dimension but also in a distinctly spiritual one Yet when looking from a lighted kitchen into a night black window on a winter evening we might perhaps become suddenly aware not only of our own reflection but also of our complicity in some deeper mystery altogether
