Pieke, 1996 Ideology and practice had increasingly little to do with each other and a deeply felt moral crisis of society was the result Master Musicians of India Regula Burckhardt Qureshi, 2016-05-06 Beginning with Ravi Shankar and Ali Akbar Khan Indian art music is renowned internationally for its improvised raga performance This ancient tradition has for centuries been transmitted orally within the seclusion of hereditary families Few such families remain today and not enough is known about their central contribution to the life of Indian music Master Musicians of India reveals this rich world through profiles and interviews of key musicians from this tradition The Interview Jonathan Skinner, 2020-06-03 What are new interview methods and practices in our new interview society and how do they relate to traditional social science research This volume interrogates the interview as understood used and under used by anthropologists It puts the interview itself in the hotseat by exploring the nature of the interview interview techniques and illustrative cases of interview use What is a successful and representative interview How are interviews best transcribed and integrated into our writing Is interview knowledge production safe ethical and representative And how are interviews used by anthropologists in their ethnographic practice This important volume leads the reader from an initial scrutiny of the interview to interview techniques and illustrative case studies It is experimental innovative and covers in detail matters such as awkwardness silence and censorship in interviews that do not feature in general interview textbooks It will appeal to social scientists engaged in qualitative research methods in general and anthropology and sociology students using interviews in their research and writing in particular Iraqi women in Denmark Marianne Holm Pedersen, 2015-11-01 Iraqi women in Denmark is an ethnographic study of ritual performance and place making among Shi a Muslim Iraqi women in Copenhagen The book explores how Iraqi women construct a sense of belonging to Danish society through ritual performances and investigates how this process is interrelated with their experiences of inclusion and exclusion in Denmark The findings refute the all too simplistic assumptions of general debates on Islam and immigration in Europe that tend to frame religious practice as an obstacle to integration in the host society In sharp contrast to the fact that the Iraqi women s religious activities in many ways contribute to categorising them as outsiders to Danish society their participation in religious events also localises them in the city Written in an accessible narrative style this book addresses both an academic audience and the general reader interested in Islam in Europe and immigration to Scandinavia

Cultural Compatibility in Educational Contexts Kumi Kato, 2010-02-23 Cultural Compatibility in Educational Contexts examines the mechanism of control and efficacy underlying specific cultural contexts intercultural value differences and consequential conflicts which invisibly and unintentionally cause communication difficulties and negative performances This specific study centers on Japanese language classrooms in Australia taught by native Japanese speakers Comparative studies were carried out in classrooms in both Japan and Australia and identified specific teaching strategies perceived to be effective in each cultural context The book concludes by asserting that the notion of culture in the educational context goes beyond ethnic and linguistic differences an awareness of cultural compatibility should be recognized as one of the professional responsibilities of all educators This is particularly relevant to multicultural societies such as Australia where both teaching and learning populations are increasingly diverse as well as being applicable to other social contexts
