Langford,Institute of Public Administration of Canada,Institute for Research on Public Policy,1986 From the Prefatory Note some 250 public service sector managers came together from April 23 to 23 1986 to reflect on the impact that contemporary changes in their environment were having on their work as managers They were joined by a small number of academics consultants and private sector managers The conference consisted of plenary sessions on restraint contracting out information technology public access to information conflict of interest risk taking employment equity and political rights The ninth and final plenary session was a panel discussion on the question of whether or not a new model was emerging for the public sector manager What follows is a summary of the discussion at the conference and a collection of plenary and workshop papers around the nine themes Handbook of Public Administration, Second Edition W. Bartley Hildreth,Gerald J. Miller,Jack Rabin,1997-09-19 This bestselling reference examines all major areas in public administration from the enlightening perspectives of history and the five great concepts or theories framing each topic including public budgeting financial management decision making public law and regulation and political economy The American Reference Books Annual calls this stimulating and thought provoking thorough and inclusive a valuable contribution and Canadian Public Administration said it is impressive an extremely useful reference tool the writing and analysis and the scope of the coverage make the volume a good investment for both government and university libraries
