Excerpt from Sir Harry Hotspur of Humblethwaite. Sir Harry Hotspur of Humblethwaite was a mighty person in Cumberland and one who well understood of what nature were the duties and of what sort the magnificence which his position as a great English commoner required of him. He had twenty thousand a year derived from land. His forefathers had owned the same property in Cumberland for nearly four centuries and an estate nearly as large in Durham for more than a century and a half. He had married an earl's daughter and had always lived among men and women not only of high rank but also of high character.
