On New Year s Day 1959 as Fidel Castro seized power in Cuba Alejandra San Jos was born in Havana entering the world through the heart of revolution Fearing the conflict and strife that bubbled up in the streets all around the new family her parents took Ale and fled to the free shores of America Ale grew up in Chicago amid a close community of refugees who lived with the hope that one day Castro would fall and they could return to their Cuban homes Though Ale was intrigued by the specter of Havana that colored her life as a child her fascination eventually faded in her teens until all that remained was her profound respect for the intricacies of the Spanish language and the beautiful work her father did as a linguist and translator When her own job as an interpreter takes her back to Cuba Ale is initially unmoved at the import of her return until she stumbles upon a surprising truth the San Jos s ostensibly Catholics are actually Jews They are conversos who converted to Christianity during the Spanish Inquisition Enlightened by a whole new vision of her past and her culture Ale makes her way back through San Jos history uncovering new fragments of truth about the relatives who struggled with their own identities so long ago Ale is finally lured back to Cuba to make amends with the ancestral demons still lurking there to translate her father s troubling youthful experiences into the healing language of her Cuban American heart In beautiful knowing prose Achy Obejas opens up a fascinating world of exotic wordplay rich history and vibrant emotions As Alejandra struggles to confront what it is to be Cuban and American Catholic and Jewish Obejas illuminates her journey and the tempestuous history of Cuba with intelligence and affection Days of Awe is a lyrical and lovely novel from an author destined for literary renown Back to Port Royal: A Time Travel Romance ID Johnson,2025-08-13

Back to Port Royal I went to Jamaica for sun sand and a little adventure I didn t expect a raging storm to pull me under and drop me into the year 1692 Rescued by Gabriel a dangerously charming pirate captain I find myself swept into a world of rum intrigue and whispered promises Weeks turn into nights I ll never forget until the Earth itself rebels The quake strikes The sea rises And in the chaos I m ripped away thrown back to my own time For three years I ve tried to forget the man who risked everything for me But the pull of the past is stronger than reason and I m willing to defy time itself to find him again Back to Port Royal is a sweeping time travel romance full of danger passion and a love too strong to stay in one century The series can be read in any order

Sex on Flamingo Beach Marcia King-Gamble,2007-11-01 Business takes on a new flavor Resort manager Emilie

Woodward's plans to make the Flamingo Beach Spa and Resort the place to be just hit a snag. His name is Rowan James. His hard muscled body makes her weak in the knees and his plan to open a casino next door may cost Emilie her job. And when Rowan asks Emilie out, suspicion crowds out the erotic fantasies of Rowan that have lately filled her head. She wonders what he is really after. Is he looking for a no strings attached fling or a competitive advantage? It would take more than a couple nights of steamy passion to make two fierce business rivals into ever after lovers wouldn't it.

Ghosts in the Consulting Room Adrienne Harris, Margery Kalb, Susan Klebanoff, 2016-04-20

Ghosts in the Consulting Room Echoes of Trauma in Psychoanalysis is the first of two volumes that delves into the overwhelming often unmetabolizable feelings related to mourning. The book uses clinical examples of people living in a state of liminality or ongoing melancholia. The authors reflect on the challenges of learning to move forward and embrace life over time while acknowledging witnessing and working through the emotional scars of the past. Bringing together a collection of clinical and theoretical papers, Ghosts in the Consulting Room features accounts of the unpredictable effects of trauma that emerge within clinical work often unexpectedly in ways that surprise both patient and therapist. In the book, distinguished psychoanalysts examine how to work with a variety of ghosts as they manifest in transference and countertransference in work with children and adults in institutional settings and even in the very founders and foundations of the field of psychoanalysis itself. They explore the dilemma of how to process loss when it is unspeakable and unknowable, often manifesting in silence or gaps in knowledge and living in strange relations to time and space. This book will be of interest to psychotherapists and psychoanalysts as well as social workers, family therapists, psychologists, and psychiatrists. It will appeal to those specializing in bereavement and trauma and on a broader level to sociologists and historians interested in understanding means of coping with loss and grief on both an individual and larger scale basis.
