Handbook of Administrative Reform Jerri Killian,Niklas Eklund,2008-02-21 The field of public administration currently lacks sufficient resources for understanding the rationale implications and inherent practices of reforming government administration around the world The Handbook of Administrative Reform satisfies this need by bringing together diverse international experts to analyze the sensible processes an

Designing and Implementing HR Management Systems in Family Businesses Gnan, Luca,Flamini, Giulia,2021-01-15 Human resource management HRM systems are an under researched area in family business studies even though they arguably play an important role To exploit their entrepreneurial orientation and achieve their goals family firms must be willing to adopt a specific configuration of the organizational variables to succeed in the competitive environment of today Designing and Implementing HR Management Systems in Family Businesses is a pivotal reference source that focuses on HRM in family businesses aiming at clarifying what HRM topics are relevant in family firms given their distinctive features what the role of HR choices in family firms is and how they differ in these organizations While highlighting topics such as quality of work generational workforce and leadership management this publication explores the relationship between HRM systems and the organization as well as why certain theories would be more dominant for family firms This book is ideally designed for family businesses managers executives entrepreneurs business professionals academicians students and researchers

The Formation of Peripheral Capital Ceren Deniz,2023-04-01 This book engages critically with mainstream accounts of Anatolian Tigers in contemporary Turkey Based on her fieldwork in orum Deniz explores the dynamics of medium size businesses with a dual optic of political economy and moral economy She demonstrates that the formation of the entrepreneurial stratum is a multifaceted process and zooms into a range of workplaces to show the entanglements of market and non market dynamics in everyday life This innovative work sheds original light on the role of kinship religion and social values in shaping the everyday politics of labour Ceren Deniz taught Economic Anthropology at Martin Luther University Halle Wittenberg in 2020 2021 Entrepreneurship Mario Franco,2016-11-09 Entrepreneurship has been seen as a phenomenon allowing economic development job creation increased productivity and innovation but many studies do not include the causes of these events Consequently the objective of this book is to fill this gap by combining several studies from more practice oriented perspectives The various chapters presented here follow several approaches which researchers explore in different contexts and link to specific experiences in entrepreneurship This book intends to contribute to better understanding of the phenomenon of entrepreneurship and innovation and to show how these business practices can stimulate economic development in various countries and regions worldwide Ibss: Economics: 1995 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London School of Economics,1996 The IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institutions whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Building States and Markets G. Özcan,2016-04-30 The transition economies of Central Asia are faced with the most daunting challenge of modern capitalism the move from vassal pseudo states of the former Soviet Union to competitive nations This book is the first to explore the first 15 years of economic emergence and assess the capabilities of these countries to transform their economies Environment and Planning A.,1997
