Books in Print Supplement ,2002 The Crisis ,2002-03 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens The Miracle of the Kurds Stephen Mansfield,2014-10-14 New York Times best selling author Stephen Mansfield was witness to much of the modern history of the Kurds In this riveting account Mansfield movingly tells the stories of the people who have fashioned one of the greatest economic and cultural resurrections in human history They are the largest people group in the world without a homeland of their own Despised and persecuted the world over they even call themselves the people without a friend Saddam Hussein tried to wipe them from the face of the earth killing several hundred thousand of them in the attempt Their sufferings have become legend They are the Kurds descendants of the ancient Medes best known today from the pages of the Bible inhabitants of what the world now calls Northern Iraq Yet today the Kurds are rebuilding so brilliantly from war and oppression that even their enemies call it a miracle Six star hotels stand where bombs once fell shopping malls and gleaming schools rise where massacres once occurred National Geographic and Conde Nast have listed modern Kurdistan as a must see tourist destination Beyond the Miracle Allister Sparks,2003-10-15 In Sparks third book on South Africa he writes about the outcomes and continuing struggles of a post Mandela elected government The democracy faces a widening gap between rich and poor continued racial and ethnic tensions and conflicts with other countries such the Congo and Zimbabwe He describes it as a land where the First and Third World meet with examples that are important to other countries facing the same challenges Ain't Nobody Be Learnin' Nothin' Caleb Rossiter,2015-04-01 America s most challenged families are segregated into high poverty schools Despite a 20 year experiment in nationwide school reform few students make it over the slippery bridge to the middle class In this book you will meet the students families teachers and administrators who struggle inside this failed system and consider proposals to give them a fighting chance Caleb Rossiter recounts his experiences as a math teacher of African American 9th and 10th graders in the poorest wards of the nation s capital He describes the obstacles facing teachers who are held accountable for the performance of students whose average skills are years below grade level Rossiter also a professor of statistics at American University explains how the No Child Left Behind law allows school districts to use so called data driven measures of teacher and even school effectiveness that ignore learning deficiencies and behavior patterns that began before a child's first day in school. These measures violate basic norms of statistical analysis yet are used to make comparisons and draw policy level conclusions. He exposes the pretense of success claimed by school reformers who pressure teachers to award unearned grades and if they won't paper over failure with imitation classes euphemistically termed credit recovery. He then offers reasonable solutions that would enable children who attend school ready to learn to be freed from the disruption of poorly socialized peers who can be better served in alternative settings. New York Magazine, 1992-11-16
