Smalltown A Study Of Social Inequality Cohesion And Belonging:

Smalltown Kenneth Dempsey,1990 Are small rural communities the friendly and easy going places to live they often claim to be Are the elderly in rural environments better off than their city peers These and other questions are addressed in this Australian community study which examines age and gender inequality in all major spheres of community life It concentrates on the costs and benefits of living in one of Australia s 350 smaller communities Globalization and Education Nelly P. Stromquist,Karen Monkman,2000 With increased opportunities for interaction and learning education around the world is becoming transformed These essays strive to provide a thorough examination of the impact these changes are having on how education is defined whom it serves and how it is assessed around the world Topics include Conceptual issues Globalization and internationalism educational reform curriculum inquiry Globalization impact in educational sectors European community colleges labor markets gender schooling Adult education Case Studies of Globalization Impacts Commonwealth Caribbean Japan Lesoto Mexico South Africa Malaysia Australia The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia Ian McAllister,Steve Dowrick,Riaz Hassan,2003-08-07 First published in 2003 The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia is a high quality reference on significant research in Australian social sciences The book is divided into three main sections covering the central areas of the social sciences economics political science and sociology Each section examines the significant research in the field placing it within the context of broader debates about the nature of the social sciences and the ways in which institutional changes have shaped how they are defined taught and researched The Blackwell Companion to the Sociology of Families Jacqueline Scott,Judith Treas,Martin Richards,2008-04-15 Tackling issues relevant to family life today this authoritative Companion shows why studying social change in families is fundamental for understanding the transformations in individual and social life across the globe Contains original essays by expert contributors on a wide range of topics relating to the sociology of families Includes coverage of social inequality parenting practices children s work the changing patterns of citizenship and multi cultural families Gives special attention to European and North American examples Discusses previously neglected groups including immigrant families and gays and lesbians Explores how revolutionary changes in aging longevity and sexual behavior have radically affected the experience of different generations and the relationships between them The Routledge Handbook of Methodologies in Human Geography Sarah A. Lovell,Stephanie E. Coen,Mark W. Rosenberg,2022-10-18 The Routledge Handbook of Methodologies in Human Geography is the defining reference for academics and postgraduate students seeking an advanced understanding of the debates methodological developments and methods transforming research in human geography Divided into three sections Part I reviews how the methods of contemporary human geography reflect the changing intellectual history of human geography and events both within human geography and society in general In Part II authors critically appraise key methodological and theoretical challenges and opportunities that are shaping contemporary research in various parts of human geography Contemporary directions within the discipline are elaborated on by established and emerging researchers who are leading ontological debates and the adoption of innovative methods in geographic research In Part III authors explore cross cutting methodological challenges and prompt questions about the values and goals underpinning geographical research work such as Who are we engaging in our research Who is our research for What are our relationships with communities Contributors emphasize examples from their research and the research of others to reflect the fluid emotional and pragmatic realities of research This handbook captures key methodological developments and disciplinary influences emerging from the various sub disciplines of human geography Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space Sarah Pinto, Shelley Hannigan, Bernadette

Walker-Gibbs, Emma Charlton, 2019-04-25 This book brings together researchers from different fields traditions and perspectives to examine the ways in which place and space might be unsettled Researchers from across the humanities and social sciences have been drawn to the study of place and space since the 1970s and the term unsettled has been an occasional but recurring presence in this body of scholarship Though it has been used to invoke a range of meanings from the dangerous to the liberating the term itself has rarely been at the centre of sustained examination This collection highlights the idea of the unsettled in the scholarly investigation of place and space The respective chapters offer a dialogue between a diverse and eclectic group of researchers crossing significant disciplinary and interdisciplinary boundaries in the process The purpose of the collection is to juxtapose a range of different approaches to and perspectives on the unsettling of place and space In doing so Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space makes an important contribution and offers new insights into how scholarship and research into different fields and practices may help us re envision place and space

Spaces of Masculinities Kathrin Hörschelmann, Bettina van Hoven, 2013-03-07 Changing circumstances in Western and global societies have introduced new constraints and opportunities for men and the formation of male identities Meanwhile the emerging diversity of atypical identities atypical when compared with traditional conceptions of middle class white heterosexual men poses new challenges for the production and use of spaces Spaces of Masculinities provides a comprehensive introduction to the innovative and diverse research on spaces of masculinity Drawing on a variety of geographical research projects the central concern of the book is to highlight the significance of research on masculinity in sociological and geographical work dealing with constructions of gender Methodological Challenges and New

Research Design in Social Research David de Vaus, 2001-02-16 With this book David de Vaus has written one of the best general research methods textbooks around The use of different types of research design as the point of departure is a different and very helpful approach to take especially since many textbooks confuse issues of method and design The author outlines with great clarity a wide variety of issues including testing theories causation data analysis and the main considerations involved in using the different research designs covered Both students and their instructors will find this an extremely valuable well written book Professor Alan Bryman University of Loughborough A wonderful opportunity for research design students and practitioners to think more about the planning and process of research design Forum for Qualitative Social Research This book is intended to show social science students the importance of attending to design issues when undertaking social research One of the main problems in doing practical research is that design and structure are inappropriate for the uses of research They often do not support the conclusions that are drawn from it Several research methods books focus on data collection strategy and statistical analysis While these issues are pertinent this book argues that the core of research methods is the structure and design of the research The book provides students with a clear understanding of the importance of research design and its place in the research process describes the main types of research designs in social research explains the logic and purposes of design to enable students to evaluate particular research strategies equips students with the design skills to operate in real world research situations The book is divided into five parts Part One explores issues about types of research research concepts research questions causality and basic issues in the design process The remaining four parts focus on different types of research design Experimental longitudinal cross sectional and case study methods are clearly and systematically examined and their strengths and weaknesses are described The result is a one stop critical guide to design in social research that students and researchers will find invaluable
