Smile for Auntie Diane Paterson,1991-04-01 Smile for Auntie , Auntie tries everything she can think of to make the baby smile Smile for the Lady! Jean Lee Latham,1937 Between Sisters Evelyn L. Parker,2017-05-08 In a world laced with the lethal threads of racism sexism classism and sexual oppression we need a liberating hope that dismantles these intersecting problems that render us into a stupor of chronic despair In the United States where the color of your skin can determine life or death we need hope that will give us life abundantly In a country where state laws prohibited mixed race marriages between white and black people as recent as the year 2000 and black white mixed race children were demonized by both whites and blacks our hope must be inspired by the Holy Spirit God the Creator and Redeemer at work in the world today This book offers emancipatory hope as this divine hope With a focus on black white mixed race young women and their troubling relationships with women and girls of all ethnicities Between Sisters provides a process toward emancipatory hope through forgiveness femalship fortitude and freedom The process toward emancipatory hope challenges Christian churches to practice forgiveness femalship fortitude and freedom in a racist society While the process is not without struggle it promises that hope through the power of the Holy Spirit will someday usher in a society of justice peace and love
